Timarpur (Delhi) Election Results for assembly 2020 Live: Delhi Assembly constituency will go to the polls on February 8. In the last assembly elections, Pankaj Pushkar of AARP took the seat by a margin of 20,647 votes. Pankaj Pushkar defeated bjp candidate Rajni Abbi. The last state assembly elections in Delhi were held on February 7, 2015 to elect 70 members. In the 2015 Delhi Assembly elections, AARP won 67 out of 70 seats. The BJP won the remaining three seats. While AAP received 54.3% of the vote, the BJP received 32%. There are a total of 1.46 crore registered voters in Delhi - 80,55,686 men, 66,35,635 women and 815 belonging to the third sex. The BJP hopes to repeat its success in 2019 in Delhi, where the Assembly elections are scheduled for February 6. Delhi overwhelmingly votes for the BJP in the Lok Sabha elections in 2014 and 2019, giving it all seven seats. The party's share of the vote rose from 32.19 percent in the 2015 Assembly elections to 56.86 percent in May's Lok Sabha elections. However, in the 2015 Assembly elections, it was reduced to three of the 70 seats, with the rest winning the AAP. After the 2019 Lok Sabha elections, the BJP failed to win assembly elections in Haryana, Maharashtra and Jharkhand, one of the reasons why the party desperately needs to win in Delhi. The last time the party held power in the capital was in 1998. Check here for all the details about the Timarpur Assembly election results. / Indian Express is currently on Telegram.
