Three years ago, Coldplay and frontman Chris Martin teamed up with Mark Osborne (Kung Fu Panda, MORE, and the upcoming Little Prince) to create an epic Mylo story that went on to inspire chart-toppers like Every Teardrop is Falls, Paradise, Princess of China and Hurts Like Heaven - which has its own MYLO XYLOTO COMIC. He is associated with (and tells the story) of Coldplay's album Mylo Xyloto. The story of publication on July 10, 2012, the site Coldplay announced a six-episode comic Mylo Xyloto, the first issue of which will be released at Comic-Con this week. Published by Bongo Comics, the story follows a story about Milo, Silence, which, according to co-writer Mark Osborne (filmmaker), is part of a war against sound and color. Along with Osbourne, Dylan Haggerty also writes a comic book (starting with the second issue) with the work of Alejandro Fuentes. Mylo's main characters: a frustrated silencer (a member of the silencia secret police) who joins the rebels after he touched one of Sparkers' musical graffiti. Rex: Mylo's muffler's boyfriend who is dedicated to his work and the fight against the Sparkers. Main drawback: Irdoka's representative at Silencia and the public face of the Irdok board. He is also an official of Irdok, which controls silencers. He regularly appears on Hypnofeed on the show Miles of Smiles, and he publishes propaganda about Sparkers and Color. Fly: Leader of Sparkers and romantic interest in Mylo. It is such a significant threat to Major Minus that it offers a free Hypnofeed to a man who Her. Summary In the World the species known as Irdoks rule the silencians in the gloomy police state. They have military police recruited from the forces, known as silencers, who teach to uphold the rule of law of Irdoka, which is known as Chromatics and Acoustic Level Management (CALM). Irdoks defend their CALM policy by talking about the Great Color War, which led to species known as eaters whose Irdoks protect silencians from. To insure the lack of color and sound in their world, silencians use a tool known as Hypnofeed that constantly feeds them with visual and (allegedly) audio stimulation. The main downside, however, is the problem associated with the continuation of the uprising by a part of the population known as The Sparkers who create Sparks (which are colorful musical graffiti) in an attempt to wake up the population from Hypnofeed.
