Eluru (Tutown): Many historical monuments in Eluru, known as Helapuri under the rule of the kings of Wenga, are still proof of the popularity of the empire. It is known that the city was sold with precious stones. The city was also known as the city city. There were many incredible monuments in Helapuri from the days of kings to British rule and zamindarperiod. These monuments are still intact, and the audience is amazed. There are temples with the most unique monuments. The Temple of Venkateswar Swami on West Street, built in 1104 during the time of the Kings of Wengui, the Temple Tower of Chennakesaw in Shanivaruppet, Thief Mundapam, Kotdibba, the inscriptions are still intact. The district collectors' building, built under the British regime, Sarivasssser, the municipal old office, the old offices of the district department of education, are symbols of the history of the old offices. In addition, you can see the palaces of zamindari and other buildings in Helapuri. When we look at these monuments, the generation today It has become a habit to discuss whether Helapuri has such a glorious history. However, everyone has a responsibility to preserve these monuments, to bear witness to the history of the time, and to ensure their future.
