A map of all Michelin stars and you will see that there is a dense cluster of them in Las Vegas. The lovely dining is a huge deal here and there is a lot of competition among Las Vegas restaurants vying to be the best. The best Las Vegas restaurants The big winners, of course, are the gourmands who travel to this city with taste buds (and wallets) ready. That's where to head to the Las Vegas dining room at its best. (viator_tour destination)684 Type 3-mod Joel Robuchon TripAdvisor No list of the best restaurants in Las Vegas would be complete without Joel Robuchon at the MGM Grand. The city's only three-star Michelin restaurant has a chef so talented that they just gave the restaurant its name. It creates edible art with French cuisine as its medium-presentation is gorgeous, servers are extremely attentive, and the decor is exquisite Art Deco with purple tones, a large chandelier, and a dark shifting tree. Order a 16-course tasting menu that includes caviar, Maine lobster, frog legs and sea urchin flan. There is a vegetarian tasting menu; Otherwise, choose one of the inventive Robuchon a la carte entrees along with an elegant bush entertain. Picasso's TripAdvisor Picasso, in Bellagio, has the original paintings of his namesake artist hung on all its walls, and the food and coating is inspired by the distinctive style of the abstract master. These framed treasures aren't the only exciting thing to admire while you dine at Picasso: the restaurant is a one-of-a-kind place next to the famous Bellagio fountains treats patrons to the show's dramatic dinner. As for the kitchen, chef Julian Serrano received two Michelin stars for his French and Spanish fare with flair. Go prix fix with wild mushroom soup, big eye tuna tartare, and Maine lobster. There is also a vegetarian menu. Splurge on expertly made wine pairing. The Guy Savoy TripAdvisor restaurant is much more than dinner, it's an experience to enjoy and remember. Guy Savoy at Caesars Palace is based on the original of an outstanding chef in Paris, France. His illuminating Las Vegas dining room, which is romantic but not ruffled, earned two Michelin stars of its own. This wonderful cuisine is serious, and Savoy's unwavering commitment to excellence makes for a supremely enjoyable evening. There is a 13-course tasting menu, a caviar room, a bread cart, a highly curated wine list and a six-seater chef's table overlooking the heralded kitchen. Don't give in to artichoke and black truffle soup as you enjoy discreet but very attentive service. Aureole TripAdvisor More dynamic of Charlie Palmer's two restaurants in Las Vegas (another Charlie Palmer Steak), Aureole's Mandalay Bay showcases chef Johnny Church's exclusive farm-to-table American with personal contact. His wine-centric menu is organized by about three three Root (beetroot salad and spaghetti squash are excellent), ranch (with beef and octopus carpaccio), and Surf (six inspired seafood options). The service is warm and friendly, the decor is attractive and modern, and vegans won't leave hungry. For dessert, go for maple brown creme brulee oil, or creamy parfait with Sicilian pistachios. Le Cirque TripAdvisor In Bellagio, Le Cirque is a favorite lunch for many reasons: the service is kind and polite, French cuisine is lovely to watch and eat, and the colorful dining room fills the imagination with fun-decor centers around an elegantly made circus theme. Small portions are large in style. Favourites are Japanese yellowtail, wagyu beef and, from a vegetarian menu worthy of Pixar ratatouille, Le Cirque is not as outrageously priced as some of his fellow best Las Vegas restaurants: Tasting menus start at $108, although pairing lovely wines here will be your bill. For dessert, go for a raspberry parfait with gelee champagne. Mesa Grill TripAdvisor's Bobby Flay at Mesa Grill at Caesars Palace is really all about grilling. Flay's creative American cuisine with a southwest flair includes options such as two-smoked quesadilla bacon, tiger prawns and roasted corn tamales, as well as spicy pork tenderloin. Come to this upbeat restaurant for big steaks, big lamb chops, big fish and great fun. The much textured dining room is noisy and colorful. Unique among the best Las Vegas restaurants for offering unpretentious upscale restaurants, the service here is as good as the tastes. Don't miss the goat cheese fondue or the excellent blue tequila agave tasting. Michael Mina TripAdvisor Another of The Outstanding Collections of Bellagio Gourmet Restaurants, Michael Mina presents modern seafood cooked in a new American style. The famous Egyptian chef has created tantalizing steaks, lobster pies, Wagyu beef and more for his Bellagio outpost. Choose between a seasonal, branded or vegetarian tasting menu, then relax and enjoy outstanding flavours, stylish service, an exquisite atmosphere and an impressive wine list. Michael Mina fans may also want to visit another of his Las Vegas restaurants, the new Bardot Brasserie at the Aria Resort. Pierre Gagnaire TripAdvisor's Twist On the 23rd Floor of the Mandarin Oriental is a twist, a dramatic space by Pierre Gagnaire, where floor-to-ceiling windows make for the most breathtaking views of Las Vegas, and where over 300 globes hang from the ceiling. But the new French cuisine of Gagnaire ended up stealing the spotlight. Whether you choose a grandiose tasting menu, a fancy vegetarian tasting menu or order a la carte (caviar, fine meat, seafood galore), exquisitely prepared dinner arrives on floral plates; experience is what you you you Soon forget it. This is the only Michelin-starred chef's restaurant in the United States, so don't give up the opportunity to try your inspired creations here. Wing Lei TripAdvisor Wing Lei in Wynn presents brilliant Chinese cuisine in a bright, colorful setting with yellow and orange details that resemble the Japanese of the imperial era. When booking, you'll want a window seat to enjoy the view of the restaurant's gorgeous private garden with golden dragon and 100-year-old pomegranate trees. Wing Lei was the first Chinese restaurant in America to receive a Michelin star, thanks to its carefully prepared dishes that merge into Sichuan, Cantonese and Shanghai flavors. Chef Min Yu's specialties include Alaska geoduck clams, wok-throwing sea cucumber, and Wagyu beef with sweet peppers. Nobu TripAdvisor At Caesar's Palace, next to the hotel at the Nobu Hotel, you will find this fantastic restaurant, presenting a unique Japanese cuisine soaked in Peruvian tastes. Chef Nobu Matsuhisa and actor Robert De Niro collaborated around the world to create more than three dozen Nobu restaurants, and the location of Las Vegas is right there with everyone else. There's an emphasis on design here, with leather and wood touches throughout. The delicacies of the menu - teppanyaki, sushi, tempura; If you are in the mood to splurge, go for wagyu tacos, yellowtail tartare, or tempura crab. Nobu Las Vegas offers tables and a sushi bar, a reliable wine and sake list, and excellent service. Try the harumaki banana for dessert.
