Construction Simulator 2 game is a unique opportunity to try yourself in the management of various construction equipment. And most importantly - equipment is not just the authors of fantasy games, but a real copy of the most popular construction brands. To continue the popular franchise acquired a license to operate these machines. The list of large companies is impressive: ATLAS, Caterpillar, Liebherr, STILL, Palfinger, Equipment, Bell and many others. You can build a huge number of different buildings. To cope with the difficulty of communicating with them. Pave the way in the most modern way to repair them. To this end, the stimulant was provided by the state of the United States - the West side plains. Of course it's fictional. Enter the world of the great building. Build your business from a small, unknown company to the largest and most successful holding company. Construction Simulator 2 will help you with this.
