UPSC Result (Year Wise) (2015-2020) Civil Services Exam is held each year by UPSC in order to recruit officers in Indian civil services. Selected candidates will serve in various positions in various all-Indian services, such as the Indian Administrative Service (ISU), the Indian Foreign Service (IFS), the Indian Police Service (IPS), the Indian Tax Office (IRS) and so on. The UPSC (CSE) civil services exam is one of the most prestigious exams in the country, and its success is also quite low. On average, with about 5 lakh candidates taking the preliminary exam (first stage), eventually only 700 to 1,000 candidates are selected for services. UPSC IAS 2020 Marking Scheme Wrong Answer: -2/3 Marks Formula for calculating the result Of Common IAS 2020 (Number of Correct Answers X 2 Marks) - (Number of Wrong Answers X 2/3 Marks) UPSC IAS 2020 Tie-Breaking Rule Each Year, Lakhs applicants appear on UPSC IAS prelims, which means that there remains a huge probability of the two candidates providing the same signs. Thus, in such cases, the tie-break rule comes into force. If two or more candidates received the same grades in the 2020 IAS exam, the draw is decided on the basis of the principles approved and prescribed by the Commission. Candidate scored Marks in Personality Tests and mandatory test are summed up and then rank calculated. If in the case, the signs of both mandatory and personal test are the same from the candidate's candidate rank is awarded to a candidate who is the oldest in age. In case the above criteria are also the same, the higher rank is established on the basis of the signs that the candidate has enshrined in the mandatory documents. UPSC IAS 2020 Cut Offs Along with the result of UPSC IAS, the Commission also releases the cuts. The cut-off marks are not the same as the minimum qualifying marks. It is determined by a number of factors, including the number of applicants, the level of complexity, etc. Cuts under IAS are expected to be higher until 2020 than in the previous year. Applicants can check the cut marks for ISU 2019, ISU 2018 and IAS 2017 below.
