It's been awhile lyrics by staind

It's been a while since I could ... Keep my head up It's been a while since I first saw you, and after a while I've been able to stand on my own two feet again, and it's been a while since I've been able to call you, and everything I can't remember seems to suck. I also liked myself and say ... It's been a while since I've been gone and messed everything up as I've always done but all this shit seems to disappear when I'm with you and it seems like all the consequences I can't remember as everything sucks as I rendered Gone and messed things up again... Why should I feel that way again? But then I had a while to go back to a damn stuff just to make this just go one more peaceful day... Look at myself, I've seen how candles are lit since I said I'm sorry for a while, but I can still remember how you tasted everything, everything seems to me to be fucked as it seems... I know this pain my father can not blame this may be since I was a while I did my best for me ... Keep my head up, it's been a while since I apologized. And it's been a while, ever since I was able to hold my head up, and it's been a while since I first saw you, and it's been a while since I've been able to stand on my own two feet again, and it's been a while since I've been able to call you, and everything I can't remember is fucking. As it may seem like everything else, I've extended myself beyond my means, and I can say for a while that I'm not addicted, and I can say that I've loved myself for a while. Awhile since I went and messed everything up like I always do and it's been a while But all this crap seems to disappear when I'm with you and I can't remember everything as it all seems like the consequences I've gone and messed everything up I've gone and messed up everything why should I feel that way? Just get out of this, just be at peace for one more day! And it's been a while, since I've been able to take care of myself properly, and it's been a while, since I said I'm sorry, and it's been a while since I said I'm sorry, and I've seen how the candle lights up your face, and it's been a while, but I can still remember. Just taste it, and everything I can't remember can seem like a mess. it's been a while since I said high and I'm sorry
