To get Exordium, you have to work out the following elements in the following order: This process requires a Weaponsmith 500. Notably, the creation of Exordium requires: 290 shards of Exitaire (it requires 26100 Elder Wood Logue and 23,200 Mithril ore)10 Elonian Leather Square6 Deldrimor Steel Ingot250 Mystic Coin77 Mystic Clover View Redditor has assembled a table to track your Exordium development process. They also identified a way to save themselves 200 golds while developing Exordium. In short: You can also buy a small amount of shards of Exitaire with laurels. Every day you can buy one chest of legendary shards at the merchant's laurel for 10 laurels. Each chest contains 3 legendary shards. For more information on how to get or craft any of the following ingredients or items, we strongly encourage you to look them at the official wiki. The gift of desert craftsmanship or magum craftsmanship? To complete the last stage of the creation of Exordium, you need either the Gift of Desert Mastery or the Gift of Magum's craftsmanship. Many players wonder which one they should choose. Short version, Gift of Mahuuma Mastery. If you've already mapped Magum's cards (Verdant Brink, Auric Basin, Tangled Depths, and Dragon Stand) and used these Gifts for something else, you'll need to complete the card on another character. It's still worth it! You need four things for each gift: Item 1: Both gifts require you to make a card-complete four cards in the area. Item 2: For Desert Mastery, you have to unlock each skill for four mounts (Raptor, Skimmer, Springer, and Jackal). For Maguuma Mastery, you just have to buy a widget from 4 different vendors with HoT currency cards. You will probably earn enough currency cards for this by making the card complete. Point 3: Bloodstone Shard. Item 4: This is where the trouble begins. Desert Mastery requires 250 Funerary incense. Maguuma Mastery requires 250 crystal bars. Both items are expensive - each requires amalgamated gemstones, among other items. ($$!) However, Funerary incense time closed and the heart closed. You can only buy one a day from each of the 8 known heart suppliers. Heart. repeated hearts, so you have to make a heart every day to unlock the provider. The #2 option is to buy them from a seller in the Tomb of Primeval Kings. This supplier will sell you 5 a day for crystal ingots each. You can also buy unlimited Funerary incense from this vendor, but at a very steep price: either 100 trading contracts each, or 3 Elegy mosaics each. Step 1: Craft Malumres Malumres is a tier 1 weapon. You have to create it in order to unlock Visiospei.
