Christmas is still five months old, but more than on the Hallmark Channel, preparing for the most magical time of year in full swing. Not only does it feel good the network is wrapping up its Christmas In July programming extravaganza, but it is also preparing a record number of new films to air this holiday season. 'Countdown to Christmas' begins October 25 with Candice Cameron Bure on Christmas Day 2014 under wraps 2014 Copyright 2014 Crown Media USA LLC / Photographer: Fred Hayes This year, Hallmark's annual Countdown to Christmas begins a week before Halloween. While many people will still be planning costumes and carving jack-o-lanterns on October 25, Hallmark will debut the first of dozens of all-new original Christmas movies that it will air this holiday season. The celebration lasts more than two months, with the final new films scheduled to air for the New Year. Hallmark has 40 new films scheduled for this year's Hallmark Countdown to Christmas is one of the most popular television events of the year, pulling in 85 million viewers a year. Over the past decade, the network has aired 232 original Christmas films. And they show no signs of slowing down. In 2019, 40 new holiday films will be streamed on Hallmark and Hallmark Movies and Mysteries. While we don't know every new network movie is planned, we can expect to see Hallmark regulars Candice Cameron Bure, Lacey Chabert, and Danica McKellar appear for more touching family romance stories. Cameron Bure will appear in Christmas Town, her eighth holiday film for Hallmark, and Chabert will star on Christmas Day in Rome, about an American guide in Italy who loses his job just before the holidays. McKellar will star alongside country music icon Dolly Parton on Christmas Day in Dollywood. Hallmark has some Christmas movie contest Hallmark is the undisputed champion made for television holiday movies. But that doesn't mean the network doesn't face some competition for holiday viewers. Lifetime is also a major player in the Christmas movie game, and it has an impressive 28 new films scheduled for 2019. This year's Wonderful Life celebration is designed to appeal to nostalgic TV viewers and will feature films starring former actors from Sabrina the Teenage Witch, One Tree Hill, Sister, Sister, and The Cosby Show. Films on schedule include a Very Vintage Christmas with Tia Mowry-Hardrict, a Christmas booking with Melissa Joan Hart, and Christmas Wish, with One Tree Hill alum Hilary Burton and Tyler Hilton. This wonderful life kicks off on the same day as Hallmark Countdown to Christmas - October 25. It will last until December 25. Netflix muscled its way onto the field of holiday film with Prince in 2017. Then, he followed that surprise hit hit Christmas Prince: Royal Wedding in 2018. Now, the third film in the series is in the works. Christmas Prince: The royal baby is due to arrive sometime this holiday season. Vanessa Hudgens will also star in a new Netflix holiday film called Knight Before Christmas, about a medieval knight who is transported to this day where he falls in love with a science teacher. Hugh Bonneville of Downton Abbey will appear in Jingle Jungle, about the gamemaker and his magical invention. Pop the raw cranberries into each compartment of the ice cube tray, then fill with water and freeze on the ice, which adds a festive touch to the drinks. Shake and bag in the freezer so they are ready when you need them. Like this? You'll love ... Of my 14 ounce Bag of Jolly Ranges I was able to get 16 cherries (red) and 9 green apples (green). It's exactly 25, so I'm lucky there. You don't have to use just red and green squis and, I just figured I would, as I could. If you want to, your mokes in a certain order, plan that in advance. I would like mine to go with each other, but since there was no amount I tried to make a kind of pattern with alternating green and red. Once you're ready to cut off a piece of string or yarn that's a couple of inches long. You can just double the knot of them together if you want, but it will make it harder to take one off every day. I Am I tie one knot and then bow. It was a little hard to make such a small onion, but I just cut the string longer to start with and then trimmed off the excess as soon as I had the onion size I wanted. Try to tie them together where the wrapper meets candy (Photo 5). It's going to be the strongest connection. Keep tying them all together until you have them all connected.
