Intelligence combat functions in related tasks and systems that contribute to operational situation. It includes tasks related to reconnaissance, reconnaissance and reconnaissance operations and is operated by a commander (FM 3-0). Intelligence is more than just collecting; it's this process, which involves analysing information from all sources and conducting development operations. The intelligence task includes: Support for the power generation. Support for situational understanding. Conduct reconnaissance, surveillance and reconnaissance (ISR). Provide intelligence support for targeting and information superiority. Task Type: Keyword Conversions. Focus: Grammar and vocabulary. Format: Each question consists of a sentence followed by the word key and a second sentence with a gap in the middle. You have to use this keyword to complete the second sentence, so it means the same thing as the first sentence. Number of questions: 6 How many characters: up to two marks for each correct answer. What is testing: idioms and fixed phrase phrases phrasal verb patterns of verb word patterns a combination of collocations linking words / inversion / conditional / unreal past / General tips: Write three to six words as a response. Contractions like can't or shouldn't be counted as two words. Guess if you need to! You won't lose the signs. Remember that you can't change the keyword. Once your students get to a high C1 level, there's not much grammar left to surprise or challenge them. It is often more important to focus on accuracy than to introduce completely new things. However, there are still some good, juicy grammar points that we can teach our advanced students. Inversion is one of them. And as always, it's a good idea in the exam class to include grammar just as your students can see it in the exam. That's why we have prepared inversion conversions for you to use with your CAE students. Inversion in formal English, and in written language in particular, we use negative adverbs at the beginning of the sentence to make it more decisive or dramatic. The order of words is inverted: negative adverb and have a verb - verb Compare this example from a letter of complaint. NORMAL - I have never had such a bad experience before. INVERSION - Never before have I had such a bad experience. While it is a great idea to encourage your students to use inversions in their writing and perhaps in conversational speech, inversion should only be used from time to time for dramatic effect. Excessive use of it will make their English sound quite unnatural. Negative adverbs used in inversion This some are often seen negative adverbs that are used with inversion. Not only before there were no circumstancesOn the account of Halley (ever) Seldom/rarely/Nege time before... For example, no more than Little (he/she knows)Not until... However, with these adverbs, used in paragraph 2 (for example, until almost all Made Nick Start To Have Fun) Materials Here are 10 conversions in CAE style. EXAM PART: Using English EXAM SKILLS: Key word conversion TIME: 20 minutes PREPARATION: One copy of the sheet per student Download more advanced (CAE) Materials How to paraphrase: In this part of the exam the candidate must read the sentence and then complete the second sentence with 3-6 words, so it has the same value as the first sentence. This is the text of grammar and vocabulary. Sometimes a sentence can only be completed by 2 words or more of that 6, but these answers are not valid as the task stated 3-6 words. Fill in the blanks in the second sentence with 3-6 words. You should use a word given in exactly the same form. Each question is worth 2 points, one based on vocabulary and the other on grammar. Lexical: phrasal verbs, word templates, fixed expressions, contextual vocabulary, etc. Structural: passive, relative positions, reported speech, quantifiers, connectors, strenuous changes, gerund against infinitive, modal verbs, inversions (rarely), conditional, etc. for example. We must take advantage of every opportunity to speak English. MOST We have:

any opportunity to speak English. Answer: Make the most of Try Removal Technique: You take conversion suggestions, for example: It's clear that you'll have a great time, no matter where you go out on a Saturday night. MATTER I'm sure you'll have a great time and you go out on a Saturday night. MATTER I'm sure you'll have a great time and you go out on a Saturday night. You should CONSIDER WHAT the same thing in both SENTENCES AND what IS THAT IN FIRST SENTENCE It is clear that you will have a great time no matter where you go out on Saturday night. MATTER I'm sure you'll have a great time and you go out on a Saturday night. YOU ARE LEFT WITH NO MATTER WHERE AND ALL YOU HAVE TO DO IS THINK ABOUT BEING SYNONYMOUS WITH IT. Answer: No matter where to follow up: You should write down the answers and the general vocabulary. It's almost always synonymous. Write them in a list like - refuse to throw put up with tolerate so that in order no matter, no matter as long as provided that desire, if only it's time, not time, and not use our list of 110 EXPRESSIONS FOR KEY WORD TRANSFORMATIONS FOR ADVANCED (C1) Patterns and forecasting types of responses: Conversion of sentences is quite predictable, and if you do enough practice you will see that models arise. It's very normal to find liabilities, impersonal liabilities, liabilities, relative positions, reported speeches, quantifiers, connectors, strenuous changes, gerund against infinitive, modal verbs, inversions, conditional and unrealistic times as desire or, if only. For example (see below) If to paraphrase includes WISH, the answer they are looking for is likely to include, if only, AVAILABLE In PDF. Here now, let's be in practice (answers in PDF).
