On its U.S. website, Missguided only ships to the United States and Canada. However, you can get international shipping. The company also operates websites in Australia, Germany, Spain, Europe, France, Ireland, Poland and the UK. If you are interested in shipping to any of these places, visit a website specifically designed to meet your needs. For any questions about how to send to your particular country or location, you can contact Missguided Customer Service. How did Missguided ship products? When it comes to orders placed on the U.S. website, you can choose between standard shipping and express delivery, each of which is available for both the United States and Canada. Standard shipping takes 9-13 business days and is $8 in the United States and $10 in Canada. Express delivery takes 5-7 business days and is $13 for the United States and $20 for Canada. Both types of delivery are fully tracked. Orders to Canada do not include fees and taxes that must be paid by the recipient; orders to the United States include fees and taxes as long as the subtotal is less than $800. For orders above $800, contact customer service for more information about customs requirements. What is Missguided Return's policy? If you decide you don't want what you've already ordered, you should return them within 28 days. Your items should have tags still attached, and if possible, should be packed back into the original packaging. Jewelry, cosmetics and perfumes that you have already removed from the original packaging are not returned, nor are the underwear or swimwear that you have removed the hygienic seal from. You can use the originally included return label in the package or download the replacement return label from the Missguided website. Once your refund has been packed, send it back using your preferred delivery service. It should take about 10 days for it to return to the Missguided warehouse and another 3-5 days customer service to handle the return. Use the tracked delivery option to keep an eye on the package.
