. Soehardi (1) (1) (1) Author-correspondent for the development of regional culture, The Office of History and Traditional Values in collaboration with the provincial Ministry of Education Diy held discussions and demonstrations of oral traditions. The implementation of these programmes is a mandate set out in article 32 of the 1945 Constitution, which states that the development and development of regional culture is aimed at developing Indonesia's national culture. In addition, culture coaching is designed to give cultural acumen and meaning to national development in all aspects of public life, to enhance the dignity and dignity of the nation's identity and personality. This programme-related article will explore the importance of regional cultural values, which, if possible, contribute to the formation of the national identity or identity of the Indonesian nation in the discourse of the globalization of inter-ethnic relations in the world. In accordance with the direction of the topic, the discussion in this paper focuses on oral tradition. Oral tradition in Java is one of the ways in which cultural knowledge is passed from the older generation to the younger generation, such as children's tales of children's games, a macapat song, the proverbial expression, and the performance of wayang kulit purwa. This article will discuss only the cultural values listed in the Javanese idioms of expression and the performance of wayang kulit purwa, which if it can be appointed as one of the cultural elements of the national cultural form. It is hoped that the philosophical and ethical and moral values contained in the oral traditions of Javanese culture can be updated and integrated into the national cultural constellation through ethical education and puppetry.
