Who can share images close to sharing your images off? self! Anyone who is a registered and the user is logged in. What should I share? Please share images that will help other visitors. For example: Images highlighting the attributes of the article This music player are controlled, see clasp for this necklace, look at it came in the box) images showing someone using a product (here I am wearing this scarf, ink cartridge installed here) images related to a theme (my dog captain, A great outfit, our family in Yellowstone, how to glue a chair using cabinet clamps) images that show how a product does (I took this picture with this camera, it shrunk in washing shirts, blades seen after 100 cuts) images that give a sense of product size (this refrigerator is actually 6' long, the cellphone size of the credit card) contains captions. While not necessary, they provide context for your images. Additionally, you can use the Image Notes feature to highlight one or more interesting areas in your image. Everyone will see your notes when they roll over your image. What shouldn't I share? Behave as if you were a guest at a friend's dinner party: please treat the Prime Publishing Community with respect. Do not share: Profane, pornographic, or hateful images, or any images with nudity images for which you do not own intellectual property rights images, including phone numbers, mail addresses or URLs. You can watermark an image with copyright information. Images featuring availability, price, or alternative order/shipping information have no personal information about children under 13 images with external web sites, contests, or other soliciting automobile license plates that are prominent and read easily (pictures with license plates that are fuzzed out or that otherwise may not be read acceptable). The same guidelines apply to your captions and notes. What image formats and sizes are supported? We support JPEG, GIF and PNG images. Files must not exceed 1MB. The image height and image width should both be between 60 and 3500 pixels. Instead of uploading an image, can I just enter a link to an image? No, all images should be uploaded to Prime Publishing. This ensures that your image is always available. How long does it take to upload an image? Time varies depending on the speed of your Internet connection and the size of the image file. For example, for a 400KB image, you should expect 2 to 4 minutes on a 56KB modem and less than 1 minute for a DSL or cable modem. Where will my image appear? Normally your image will appear where you uploaded it: in the article image gallery. Who owns the images I uploaded? The right owner of the image continues to own the image; Uploading your image to Prime Publishing does not transfer ownership. Close close
