Example of an NJHS essay I feel is a great opportunity for the National Junior Honorary Association (NJHS) to express myself and my abilities. I have many qualities that I feel will be a great asset to this organization, such as responsibility,Reliability, commitment, and positiveness. I've done a lot to help around my community. I helped an underprimanded teacher and had work experience at Bay Pines VA. I feel that my services around my community are good for contributing to society. First of all, I've helped underpriended people in my community several times. I volunteered at a local soup kitchen in Woburn Massachusetts. So I did tasks like providing and preparing food, and those tasks required me to be positive, organized and committed. I also took a lot of organization and helped in feeding Tampa Bay. He also volunteered at the Metropolitan Province in Tampa Bay, Florida. So I helped adults buy food and entertained young people. Another way I've helped the community is to help with the school system. I was a second-year teacher assistant at the old elementary school (Reeves Elementary School). During that experience, I did tasks such as grading, sorting papers, reading, and helping with mathematics, but during this time I had to show myself responsible, reliable and organized. I also volunteered at a church kindergarten for a while. Here, we helped them get insurance by looking at and helping children of age, up to 0-5 safety. These tasks show independence, reliability, and reliability. Finally, I worked in the linen department and worked at Bay Pines VA Hospital. We did a lot of work here, including folding laundry and sorting sheets, towels and blankets. I rolled up fit sheets, blankets, etc. I was also given the opportunity to help the scrub machine where I fill the slots with scrubs. I worked there for four hours a day in 30 minutes for lunch. The experience of this job showed the organization because I showed up every day, so I was able to do all the tasks I was instructed to do on time, and finally I had to sort things out on various shelves and trash cans. In conclusion, I feel that my experience in volunteering in the community will be a great asset to this organization. I had a lot of opportunities to help the underpriended, help with education-related matters, and help them with their work experience. The tasks I completed during the time of my service, so many good qualities that would be a good addition to this society. This community will be a great way for me to express myself and my strengths. Strengths.
