If you need to leave the room and plan to return, bring the key to the circulation desk before leaving the building. The El Camino del Español Institute conducted a study center massacing more than 200 meters square, located in the historic downtown Valladolid, in the pedestrian area near the Plaza de España. In addition to our spacious and light classrooms, students have a library, study, multimedia area and place to relax at their disposal. The Viewpoint of Mirador is our favorite corner in the Institute, it's a place to have a brief respite from our language. study room Traducción and tiempo real al escribir Calidad de primer orden a nivel mundial Traducción de documentos con tan solo arrastrar y soltar Traducir ahora Students, faculty, and staff can retain the collaborative rooms. We are in the process of introducing into new room booking hardware. The screens you see on the wall will still connect to the same web interface www.scu.edu/rooms, with the additional feature to connect to Google Calendar as well. We appreciate your patience in the event that there are any issues with discussions during this transition. All online joint room reservations can be made using the web interface available at www.scu.edu/rooms. Making a reservation through this website will require that you log on using your SCU ID, ensuring that rooms are reserved only by members of the Santa Clara community and that your booking cannot be changed or deleted by someone else. Students are limited to a total of four-hour bookings a day, in any combination of times (one four-hour block, two two-hour blocks, etc. This site can also be used to delete a reservation you no longer need. The web interface is aware of the build schedule for the Learning Commons and will not allow you to make a reservation for a time when the building is closed. Other guidelines related to collaborative room scheduling in the Learning Commons include: Room reservations can be made up to a week in advance. Reservations made online must be confirmed within 10 minutes of the scheduled start time by touching the flashing Start button that will be displayed on the Room Wizard near the door, or the reservation will be lost. Free rooms are indicated by green lights on the side of the Chamber Wizard and can be reserved on the spot by now use the Use button to touch the screen. The rooms are intended for group collaboration, not individual study. While individuals can use a room on an invasion basis if it doesn't please be gracious about surrendering space if requested by a group. The rooms are mainly intended for further academic activities. Use good judgment on appropriate times for non-academic uses to ensure that academic needs are met. The rooms are intended solely for use by members of the Santa Clara University community. Please also remember that these rooms, such as the entire Learning Commons, are a resource shared by the entire Santa Clara community. Please clean a room when you are done. Finish.
