1. Remy Martin Black Pearl Louis XIII – ($165,000) This brandy is the blend of 1,200 a.m. -- 1,200-year-olds who were aged 40 to 115. Only 786 decantations were made as this is the amount of Cognac contained in a single tierçon or barrel.2. Bowmore 1957 – ($165,000)In 2012, Bowmore released twelve fifty-four-year-old bottles of scotch. The famous Islay distillery spent its first forty-three years in a sherry barrel and the last eleven in a barrel of bourbon. I was face to face with these glass and platinum bottles that pay tribute to the ocean splashing inflates that crash against Bowmore's barrel house on a daily basis.3 The Island of Nuns, Galway Distillery, 20 years Pure Pot Still Whiskey – ($200,000) Ireland's Galway Distillery closed its doors forever in 1908, well over a hundred years ago. This whiskey was distilled in 1800 and is known as one of the finest, tastiest whiskies in existence. Part of the reason this Irish whiskey is so expensive is because there are no known unopened bottles left.4. Dalmore 62 - ($200,000) This sixty-two-year-old whisky from the Dalmore Scottish Distillery was launched in 2012. Due to the rarity of a whisky of this age, Dalmore limited the bottling of this offer to only twelve bottles. Good luck finding one.5. Macallan M six liters in Lalique - ($628,000) Macallan is well-known and is one of the most sought after and collected whiskers in the world. This single malt sold for just under $630,000 at a Sotheby's auction in Hong Kong in January. Glass itself is a work of art. Crystal decanter sits at twenty-eight centimeters high and holds six liters of whisky. The liquid inside is a combination of sherry barrels between the ages of twenty-five and seventy-five years.6. Mendis Coconut Brandy - ($1 million) If you're like me, you've probably never heard of brandy coconut. Mendis Coconut Brandy made its appearance in the spirit world in 2007. Swept into Halimilla barrels, this is the first ever clear brandy that is made from coconuts.7. Vodka Diva – ($1 million) Most of the spirits on this list are expensive just because of the liquid inside. Scotland Diva Vodka is expensive mostly because of the bottle it comes in. This wheat-based vodka is filtered three times through northern birch charcoal and sits in a bottle containing forty-eight crystals, including cubic zirconia, fumiged topaz, amethyst, citrine, pink tourmaline and peridot.8. Henri IV Dugognon Heritage Cognac Grande Champagne - ($1.9 million) This is one of the most expensive bottles of alcohol in the world since it is a hundred years and comes in a twenty-four carat sterling gold and silver glass, which is covered in bling. The glass is adorned with nearly seven thousand diamonds.9. Pasión Azteca, Platinum Liqueur - ($3.5 million)Made by Tequila Ley, Ley, only tequila on this list, Pasión Azteca was first released in 2010. Similarly to Henri VI, this tequila is mostly expensive because of the bottle coming in. D'Malfi Limoncello Supreme - ($44 million) This is not Danny Deloncello's Danny Vítito. By far the most expensive spirit in the world, there are only two bottles known by D'Malfi Limoncello Supreme. The glass neck contains three three-carat diamonds and a giant 18.5-carat diamond. It was ordered by an anonymous Italian customer who bought one. There's another one, so get your checkbook ready.
