Born May 29, 1929, in New York City. Willhoit moved to California in the late 1920s with his family and lived in the Glendale-Burbank area. While living in Southern California, she married Spencer Vick in 1936, and they had two daughters. In the mid-1940s, the family moved to Santa Margarita and lived there for about 10 years. She was employed at the Roy Chandler Hat Factory in Santa Margarita. Spencer Vick died in 1950. In 1954, she married Tom Willhoit from Templeton, whom she was married to for 10 years. Mrs. Willhoit moved to Atascadero in the 1970s and lived there until she moved to Oregon in 1993. She worked at the San Luis Obispo County Health Department in important statistics for about 14 years until she retired. She loved traveling and working on family genealogy, taking trips in her rv pickup or van across the United States to find family history. She was a member of AARP in Atascadero where she enjoyed playing cards and was also active in the work of the nomination committee. She attended the Atascadero Gospel Chapel and enjoyed camping at Hume Lake Christian Camp. When she moved to Oregon, she lived in a retirement complex until her health made it necessary to move cards to an adult foster home. She then lived with her daughter Mary for three years, and for the past three years lived in adult foster care due to increased health problems. She is survived by daughters Barbara Schultz of Henderson, Nev., and Mary Tooley of Sandy, Ore.; and five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren, a nephew, a grand nephew and a grand niece. She was initiated to death by a brother, Jacque Ordean. The family suggests that any donations be made to the Diabetes Association. Jose Castillo Jose M.
