Do you also love appliances that are small and easy to store when you're not using them? Well then Hamilton Beach 4 Piece Belgian waffle kettle may be exactly what you need. Big Square Maker Hamilton Beach 4 Piece Belgian waffle maker is a nice tiny machine that packs a big punch. As stated in the name, this small waffle manufacturer cooks four life-size Belgians at once. Pretty impressive for a waffle manufacturer that is only 12.5 x 15 inches wide and only 5.5 inches thick. This is another great feature of this waffle maker- it's super thin and compact, so you can easily store it upright in your office when you're not using it. While it may be tiny, it's a pretty heavy machine that talks about its good design, not flimsy waffle makers here! Non-carbonated plates also make for an easy kitchen cleanse (or don't clean at all) as well as creating a deep pocket belgian. The Hamilton Beach 4 Fragment has a light indicator to tell you when the machine is hot, but it's about it for any fancy extra features. No drip tray, no temperature control, no timers - just straight ahead Belgian. But do you really need more frills? Let's cook the waffles! Hamilton Beach 4 Piece Waffle Maker took about 5 minutes to heat up (at least that's when a good green light came in telling me the waffle maker was ready for the dough!). I need a lot of dough to fill all four deep Belgian waffle squares and end up using about 2 1/2 cups of amazing waffle dough- it's some great waffles! Although there is no light to tell me when fully cooked, the instruction is recommended 4-5 minutes to cook. Being impatient, I checked them out after three minutes and was surprised to see that they were already quite golden brown! That was fast! Time to take them and see if they pass the Belgian waffle crunch test. Get out of the car a very light-non-stick coating worked wonders! When I crashed into the Belgian, they were super crispy. While I like the nice crunch of my Belgian (which suggest being crispy outside and fluffy inside), I can recommend them only for 2-3 minutes next time. But hey, that means you'll have yours even earlier right!?!
