K: Devanjana Nag March 23, 2018 15:11 The first thing to note is that mass train booking of Indian railways is not allowed online through the IRCTC website or the IRCTC app. Mass reservations in Indian railways: Want to travel in a marriage group, with family, college friends, on behalf of your school or school, etc?? Not sure how to make a massive reservation on IRCTC? The first thing to note is that mass booking on Indian railway trains is not allowed online through the IRCTC website or the IRCTC app. At least not higher than 6 people at a time. Therefore, one way to make a booking volume for more than 6 people is to do the procedure several times - however this does not guarantee getting seats/berths in the same bus or sequence. For mass booking of Indian railways, you need to visit a ticketing center. Mass booking or booking of an Indian railway facility allows rail passengers to travel in groups such as families, cultural groups, wedding parties, official tours, educational tours, religious groups, etc. So what are the rules for mass booking of rail tickets and what all information should you provide to book train tickets? Here's a checklist to help you apply for mass train tickets on Indian railways:1. Currently booking with a mass booking of up to 50 people is allowed CRS (Chief Booking Controller)/shift-incharge/SS, etc. For up to 100 people, reservations are allowed Manager Area/ACM/ATM/SM (Gaz.) For more than 100 people eligible to allow group bookings with Sr. DCM/DCM/DTM/Area Manager, subject to a maximum of 25 percent of the total accommodation. Mass bookings through New Delhi are made at the booking complex, THE IRCA Building, although the service is only available on nominated counters. In any city, not all train stations provide mass booking services. Passengers are advised to check in advance before visiting the station. Although IRCTC does not allow ordinary citizens to book wholesale tickets online, according to a rail official, that FE Online has spoken to the interested bodies mentioned above (chief booking manager, etc.) can make a bulk booking at the ITC after the required paperwork has been submitted and approvals provided.3 Mass letter booking format/form: In order to book tickets for a large number of people in bulk booking the facility, the request must be submitted to the interested authority. If the trip is authorized by the school/institution/department, the letter requesting the relevant body must be issued a certificate from the school/institution/department. Similarly, in the case of the marriage party, it is necessary to submit a marriage certificate or notary-approved affidavit along with a letter requesting.4 It is important to note that along with these documents, a list of people with their names, age, gender, etc. who want to travel in must be represented as well. In addition to the above documents, the person making the booking must submit a photocopy of his identity card. Read also! How to book a Ola taxi using the IRCTC Rail Connect app, websiteHere are the guidelines for mass booking: Passengers must submit a letter requesting the interested body along with the necessary documents. In accordance with Indian Railways guidelines, booking volume is limited on opening day from 8 a.m. to 9 a.m. In addition, for more than 50 per cent of affordable housing, a group or mass booking permit will not be granted. At the time of obtaining permission, the name of the passengers, along with their age, gender, contact information should be presented in a triple copy (three copies). These guidelines also allow a mass booking for return or further travel. However, permission for mass bookings in slip coaches is limited. If the name of any member of the group (no more than 10 per cent of the total group) is changed, the application must be submitted 48 hours before the scheduled departure of the train. The application must be manually written by the head of the department/group/party. However, such a request is allowed only once.
