Rabbitry in massachusetts

We are a small-scale rabbinical sterling, massachusetts (formerly H&P;R Rabbitry), we found in Lionheads, Holland Lops, Angoras and Holland Dwarfs raise. We've had rabbits for about 10 years and we've been running our rabbitry since 2010. We also give a lot of attention and treats to all our rabbits! We keep them in cages as big as possible and then every day we take them out on the rabbit run in our backyard, they can run, they can jump and they can curl up, they can eat fresh grass and we had a good time! We welcome people who are thinking of buying a rabbit to meet our appointment. Let us know whenever you want to come. We care about all our rabbits and want them to go to good, responsible and stable homes. We are happy to answer any questions and highly recommend that everyone is probably interested in bringing home a rabbit to research and take the time to prepare in advance, before buying. Rabbits require a lot of responsibility, both in terms of attention and attention. They can live up to 8-10 years. Feel free to contact us if you have any questions!—Heather & RachelThe Country Sisters Rabbitry ABOUT US We are a family run rabbit who has specialized in Dutch Lop and Lionhead rabbits for over 15 years. We're at 22 Bridge Street in Wilbraham, Massachusetts. Beautiful New England Mass Pike (MAP) exit off 7 two miles. We show and raise lionhead and holland lop rabbits for pets. They have a wonderful nature and, relatively, are easy to educate. We show them off with our children and make for an excellent bonding experience. Contact Us. SALES POLICY Family 4-h run rabbitry.
