Boosie Said in a 2020 Interview that he wished his children had the same mother In a January 2020 interview with Terri Thomas of 97.9 The Box, Boosie said he regretted the fact that his children had different mothers. Boosie said: I would keep my same kids, just fewer baby mothers. I feel like I should have spooned into the same woman and put them all in her instead of being so young and you have to look after it, you know to have children at a young age. I'm just telling them to chase dreams. First, they have to knock the school out. School is very important to my household, to my children, because my mother raised me to be important in my life. You know, I motivate my kids, and I keep saying they want more. I'm just steadily providin' a better life for those childhood than what I had. It means a lot to take to me, to give them a better childhood than what I had.
