Mass effect 3 squad list

Your group on ME3 consists of The Survival of Virmir, which means one from Ashley or Caden, as well as the return of Garros, Tali and Lyra. In addition, two new members join the group, James, and a new Corporeal EDI. If you own the Ashes DLC, there is also Javik, Prothan. As for the lessons, the group members don't have classes in the sense that Fred has lessons. Instead, they each have their own unique set of 4 forces. Two are shared with one of Shepherd's available classes, and two are unique to them, but can be opened as Bonus Powers through conversation. Specifically, the lineup of powers for each one seems to be something like this: Ashley Williams disrupts concussion ammunition fired inferno grenade sniper Kaidan Alenko Reave overload barrier Cryo Blast James Vega ammunition fortifications Frag grenade Garros Vakarian concussion shot armor penetrating ammunition My proximity overload Liara T'soni Singularity Singularity Stagnation Ammunition Tali'Zora vas Normandy Protection Drone Energy Draining Combat Drone To Sabotage EDI Burnt Overload Dummy Javik Dark Channel Lift Grenade Pull Slam Love Is In The Air? Not really. You're just a machine, and machines can be broken. Lieutenant Repak Shepherd is the human hero of mass effect, Mass Effect 2, and the upcoming Mass Effect 3, whose gender, appearance, skills and pre-service history are all customizable and have an impact on the story. Shepard's first name is also customizable, but it was never said in the game. The default shepard made in advance is a male soldier named John, with an Earth profile/sole survivor. Born on April 11, 2154, Shepard is a graduate of the Special Forces Program of the N7 Systems Alliance and was initially assigned to SSV Normandy as a senior officer. Shepard later becomes the first person to join Spectre, a special task force of the Citadel Council. Ambassador Donal Udine First appearance: Mass Effect Race: Human Classmate: Not the Galaxy Needs Leadership. Real leadership. Ambassador Donal Udine is a human diplomat stationed at the Citad. He is humanity's last ambassador for council racing and is determined to advance human interests wherever possible. Udine is portrayed as distrustful or at least fearful of Commander Shepard, especially after the commander enters Spectre. Udine often requires solid and irrefutable proof of everything before the game, a trait that often conflicts with Shepherd's goals. Udine plays the political game, refusing to rock the boat if it might jeopardize his position and therefore humanity with the Citadel Council. Ashley Williams (ME) First appearance: Mass Effect Race: Human Classmate: Yes Why is it every time someone says 'with all due respect' they really mean? Ashley Williams is a human soldier who served in the Systems Alliance as a gunnery commander in the 2nd Border Brigade in Eden Prime, and was later assigned to Commander Shepherd's unit after the geth attack on Eden Prime. She's a potential romantic partner in memory of Shepard in mass effect. Captain David Anderson First Appearance: Mass Effect Race: Classmate Adam: No I Know Major. I know his reputation, his politics. He believes that humans are from hitting the galaxy. This attack was an act of war. Captain David Edward Anderson was born in 2137 in London, but has no noticeable English accent. He is a human war hero and the original captain of the Normandy SSV. Anderson is one of the Alliance's most decorated special forces operatives, and the latest to end the N7 naval program at Arcurus station, serving honorably in the First Contact War. Garros Vakarian (ME 2) First appearance: Mass Effect 1 Race: Turian Squadmate: Yes fighting rogue Spectre with countless lives at stake and no regulations to get in the way? I'd say it's better than c-sec. Garros and Karian are Turian, formerly with C-Sec's investigations department. Like most Tories, Garros underwent military training at the age of 15, but later followed in his father's footsteps to become an officer in the C-Sec. He was responsible for questioning Captain Arterius, the council's top spectre, after the Alliance claimed That Sarlan had become a crook. Although Garros was told the investigation was over, he decided to violate the executor's order and pursue another lead himself. Eventually, Garros joined Shepard's team to help the commander defeat Major and the geth. Mass Effect 2 Jacob is a potential romantic option for a female shepard. Jack (ME 2) First appearance: Mass Effect 2 Race: Human classmate: Yes it turns out, messing with someone's head enough, you can turn a scared little boy into a strong. She is also a biotic, perhaps one of the most powerful human biotics alive, and is considered so dangerous that she was kept in stasis after she was caught. Mass Effect 2 is a potential romantic matter for a male shepard. Jeff Joker Morrow First Appearance: Mass Effect Race: Human Classmate: No I'm Not Good. I'm not even big. I'm the best thinker in the Allied. Flight Lieutenant Jeff Joker Morrow is the pilot of the Normandy SSV. Joker is an excellent pilot and arrogantly confident, wasting no time pointing out his abilities to others. He is quick to make sure everyone knows that his many achievements and commendations have been achieved, and not because of charity for his medical problems. Kaidan Alenko (ME) First appearance: Mass Effect Race: Human Classmate: Yes we finally get out here and the 'final frontier' has been settled. And the residents don't even seem impressed with the view. Or the dangers. Kaidin Allenko is a human sentinel and a lying of the Systems Alliance. While serving aboard the Normandy SSV, he was a crew lieutenant and head of the ship's naval unit. He was also an initial member of Commander Sheppard's unit. Kaidan is a biotic wire with controversial L2 implants, which are known to cause severe neurological damage to the user. However, he is lucky enough to suffer only from occasional severe migraines. In mass effect he is a possible romantic partner of a female shepard. Kelly Chambers (ME 2) First Appearance: Mass Effect 2 Race: Human Classmate: No Important Character. No Race or Gender. Kelly Chambers appears in Mass Effect 2, and is a symbol of Shepard on the Normandy SR-2. Her main job in Normandy is to update Commander Shepard with new e-mails and forward meeting requests from Shepherd's teammates. In addition, Kelly provides counsel support and monitors Shepherd's psychological status and staff, offering information on the outcome of the mission and impressions of Shepard's team. Her abilities as a consultant and her impresses are influenced by her upbringing, where Kelly earned a degree in psychology. At Cerberus, she is identified as a member of the Lazarus cell. Legion (ME 2) First Appearance: Mass Effect 2 Race: Geth Squadmate: Yes Organics Fear Us. We want to understand, not incite. Legion is the name taken by the Gestalt. The Legion has been searching the galaxy for Commander Shepard since the Battle of the Citadel. Liara T'Soni First Gig: Mass Effect Race: Asari Squadmate: Yes that's why I find you so fascinating. You were marked by the beacon in Eden Prime. You've been touched by working Prothan technology! Der Lyra Tessony is an Asari scholar who has spent the last 50 years of her life studying Prothic technology and culture, specializing in Prothian extinction. She was born in 2077, making her just 106, little more than a daughter in Terms of Asari. She has a lot of insight into the Thymes and is a highly skilled user of biotics. I think you'll find my estimates to be right on the money. Miranda Lawson is a human Cerberus officer. As Jacob Taylor's informant, she gives him guidance and advice during assignments, often through a hologram. Miranda is well traveled and has many connections, stretching from the fortress space and Terminus systems, to a hostile Nimitz abyss. Her vast network of contacts may be explained by the fact that Miranda is a well-known Cerberus operative, one who still has friends or at least friends of members of the Allied army. Mass Effect 2 is a potential romantic matter for a male shepard. Mordin Solus (ME 2) First Appearance: Mass Effect 2 Race: Salarian Classmate: Yes a lot of ways to help people. Sometimes cure patients; Sometimes dangerous people are executed. Either way it helps. Mordin Solos is a Celerian geneticist, professor and former operative of the Special Missions Group, where he conducted a tour and participated in the change of scenery. In 2185, he was recruited by Commander Shepard to assist in a high-risk mission against the collectors. Mordin has a moral character that is best described as consequent, believing that the extremes justify the means, even though he doesn't like to take a life for no good reason. His actions are often guided by a no-personal logic, refusing to let his conscience, personal and emotional connections intrest his judgment about what he believes is truly the best in the big picture. Although likable, quick-spoken and friendly, Mordin bears physical scars of his time at the STG and is still addressing the consequences of his past. Mass Effect 2 is a potential romantic matter for a male shepard. Than krios (ME 2) First appearance: Mass Effect Race: Drell Squadmate: Yes a person's metric can be hard to discern by actions alone. Their Karius is a Darrell assassin, rumored to be the most skilled in the galaxy. Unlike most assassins, who prefer to snipe their targets from a distance, Thane prefers to approach and kill his target personally, taking advantage of a mixture of stealth, weapons, face-to-face combat and biotic abilities. Despite his profession, Thyn is a deeply spiritual man who prays for success in his missions, and seeks forgiveness after each killing, even going as far as to ignore those in his immediate vicinity until he finishes doing so. Their is a possible romantic matter for a female shepherd. Glorious Man First Appearance: Mass Effect 2 Race: Human Classmate: No Salvation Comes with a Price. Don't judge us not by our methods, but by what we seek to achieve. The sedition man is Cerberus's elusive, secret and updated leader. He has cropped silver gray hair with steel blue eyes that look prosthetic. The real name of the godly man and his life before Cerberus were long forgotten. It is described as having the best and worst qualities of humanity rolled into one person. For years, the sedition man has been using Servos and his vast network of connections to achieve his goal of making humanity rise above all other races. Urdnot Wrex (ME) First appearance: Mass Effect Race: Krogan Squadmate: Yes Anyone who fights us is either stupid or on Major's payroll. Killing the former is a favor to the universe. Urdnot Wrex, a famous mercenary and bounty hunter, is also one of Kogan's last battle masters: rare men combining powerful biotic abilities with the destructive firepower of advanced weapons. Rex has heard of Commander Shepard for his travels and honors the commander as a fellow lander. Despite his chosen path of violence and killing for credits, Rex is deeply concerned about the fate of his people after the Genophage, and is one of the few planning for a new Kragan future. This fight is intervened by Admiral Anderson, who recruits Vega, declaring that a good soldier like him doesn't deserve to waste time on a Zipline. Anderson assigns Vega to guard a prisoner in Normandy, coincidentally, Commander Shepard. While Vega is an experienced soldier, he is unfamiliar with the underbelly and wretched political work of the Galaxy's Kai Leng first appearance: Mass Effect 3 Race: Human Squad Member: Yes Kai Lange was originally a Marine Lieutenant N7 Alliance known for having anti-foreign attitudes. He is described as having been born earth with features that alert his dominant Chinese heritage with a slight hint of distant Slavic ancestry in his jawline. The Touts, the only known species of his time, the Toths have risen from one planet and developed a vast empire throughout the galaxy. Not much is known about them, but many of their belongings, ruins and technology probably survived the ages. Click to return to the top of the page. My other mass effect 3 messages: Messages:
