[2] History Hulk Hogan's Rock 'n' Wrestling was animated and produced by DIC Animation City. It features animated adventures of famous WWF stars from that time, including protagonist Hulk Hogan and his team of wrestlers fighting against a group of fake wrestlers led by Rowdy Roddy Piper. [3] The show follows animated prototypes involving good characters who triumph over those who do evil in odd situations, typical of children's cartoons in the 1980s. Rarely referenced, wrestling is simply a device to identify the good guys from the bad guys. [4] The wrestling themselves appear in the live-action segments of the show; however, due to their busy travel schedule, they did not give voice to their cartoon partners. [5] Instead, they are performed by professional voice actors. A live-action segment is the music video for the cover of Land of a Thousand Dances recorded by several WWF wrestler for The Wrestling Album. As animated programming and longer production times resulted in, it often failed to keep up with WWF events at the time. This results in some wrestler spinning heels (or, in non-wrestling terms, a villain) in regular WWF shows but still good people on cartoons and vice versa; examples include Rowdy Roddy Piper (a villain when the show debuted but became a face in the fall of 1986, albeit still a bad guy in cartoons) and André the Giant (a face in the fall of 1985 who filmed heels in early 1987, despite staying with good people throughout the series). In addition, jimmy superfly snuka and Wendi Richter remained throughout the series, although the two left WWF in late 1985. WWE currently owns rights to Program. In April 2015, WWE announced that the show would be added to the WWE Network, which debuted after the April 20 episode of WWE Raw. On July 24, 2015, Hulk Hogan was fired by the WWE and a reference to Hulk Hogan including Hulk Hogan's Rock 'n' Wrestling was eliminated from the WWE Network. [6] Hulk Hogan's character is the leader of the face, or the good people; including Junkyard Dog, Captain Lou Albano, André the Giant, Wendi Richter, Jimmy Superfly Snuka, Hillbilly Jim, and Tito Santana. Rowdy Roddy Piper is the leader of heels, or bad guys; including The Iron Sheik, Nikolai Volkoff, The Fabulous Moolah, Big John Studd, and Mr. Fuji. [7] Bobby The Brain Heenan and Mean Gene Okerlund also appeared animately in several episodes. Hulk Hogan's Rock 'n' Wrestling opening song is Hulk Hogan's Theme, composed by Jim Steinman. It was also used as the theme of Hogan's round entrance, before being replaced by Real American by Rick Derringer. Steinman later re-created Hulk Hogan's Theme into Ravishing, performed by Bonnie Tyler and appeared on her 1986 album Secret Dreams and Forbidden Fire. Hulk Hogan's Rock 'n' Wrestling episodes aired for two seasons beginning in 1985. Each episode is 30 minutes long (including commercial breaks.)
