Monogrammed napkins are a beautiful way to add sophistication and style to your wedding reception or anniversary party. We offer a variety of designs such as traditional monograms, decorative initials, modern fairy-tale initials, classic filigree initials, gemstone initials and charming initials of the bride and groom. These personalized paper napkins are a budget way to add warmth, style and personality to your reception. Choose a color napkin and foil color print to match your wedding decor, and along with the groom and bride monogram, you can print up to two lines of text. The most common choice here is to have the couple's names and wedding date. These custom monogrammed printed napkins are available in cocktail (drink), lunch and dinner styles. The dinner style has a classic rectangular fold to blend beautifully with the formal setting of the table. Don't forget to see our other design options. We have many versions of the wedding logo, in addition to those shown here. There are traditional options such as a stylized bride and groom, a wedding cake, just married and joined by hearts. Less traditional wedding logos include horns of love, drunk in love and eating drink and getting married. There is an Asian symbol of love, lovers, autumn leaves, chandeliers, starfish and other unique logos to celebrate and honor the personality of the couple. In addition to the wedding, these custom party napkins are excellent for attending parties, wedding and baby showers, anniversaries, birthdays, graduations and other special events. You will find special logos for these occasions such as a throw in front of the ring, a wedding shower, a stork with a baby, a bar mitzvah, a baptism, a Christmas and a season's congratulations. To celebrate the anniversary, you can even choose a logo depicting the number of years in the marriage. I went to the website and chose what I thought were the same towels that I had previously ordered. A few minutes after placing the order, I got a call saying say The studio thinks I ordered the wrong towels. After calling them back they quickly got everything straightened up. They cancelled my original booking, placed a new one which was less expensive, and shoved my card. The two ladies I worked with were polite, helpful and action-oriented. One of them was an administrator who, seeing that the woman I called was on the other line, took over and handled the situation. Then passed the information to my contact to check. No hints, no voicemail it will be, only customer service. Well done!!! - Anthony C., reviewed May 17, 2020 2020
