Habits of creative mind books | Buy books | Summary Author bio Table of Contents Digital Rights Habits of the Creative Mind is not another manual. Instead, Habits of the Creative Mind is a series of guides that take your students off the beaten path of five paragraph essays and rote responses. Portable and elastic arranged, it works beautifully on its own or as a supplement to other materials. In this refreshingly conversational volume, your students will learn to trust and improve their own thinking and improve their writing - at all skill levels. They will have access to the very recognized, truly unique approach of Richard E. Miller and Ann Jurecic to ask and explore questions, and to face complexity - in which there are no limits to how far a student can go with his thinking and writing. Instantly accessible and instantly flexible, all your students need to do is dive anywhere in the book and be ready to try something new. And throughout, they will benefit from innovative, manageable exercises - which can be completed in any order - to help them along the way. In the context of success in postsecondary writing, the Council for Writing Program Managers, the National Council of English Language Teachers, and the National Writing Program all confirm the need to shift the emphasis on writing teaching to mind habits. This book answers this call - and gives your students the tools they need to respond to the occasion. Other versions of the habits of creative mind habits of a creative mind -
