Save dark elixir placed in the center. Air defenses are placed at the center when defending air forces easily. If you want to change the air defense position a little bit, do it yourself accordingly. Gold storage and elixir are placed evenly around the base. Archer towers and wizard towers are placed mostly in the outer compartment to feel the first attacks of enemy soldiers in the base coc th8. Ordinary buildings such as dark elixir factory, gold mines and elixir collectors are placed outside the entire village cover. You generally need to ensure that you have enough elixir (or after your BK saturated DE) to keep it getting a shot at something. TH8 is the main level by which time collectors finish updating in the lab substantially longer than having four mortars work ever to finish redesigning in their city structures. When you are at Town Hall 8, you just have too many options on how you can Base yourself and keep the layout amazing so that you can defend/farm. If this is a problem, we will cover you! The best Th8 War BaseWhen when it comes to defending the th8 base in the coc, you have to make sure you keep the town hall inside the base and continue to be in the middle of the base in a better position. Town Hall usually contains 20% of the resources and keeping it in the middle increases your chances of saving too much loot! Also, you have enough time to defend to do your job and stop enemies before reaching your TH. You want more bases? We have a dedicated one having over 10+ the best th8 war bases. Check it out – Town Hall 8 War BaseVIDEO broadcasts attacks. The best Th8 Farming BaseWhile defend your base against soldiers, you should always keep the town hall in the middle but with farming, it's a little different. Here, the main motivation is to protect dark elixir, elixir and gold storage because it is the largest amount of loot in the entire base. It's always appropriate to place them in between when it comes to farming in the th8. You want more bases? We have a dedicated having over 10+ best agricultural bases th8.
