All fitness equipment is in their original and unopened box. Once they are delivered to your home, at least 3-4 people will be required to download the item (especially for NordicTrack treadmills). For some other machines 2-3 people will do. If you need additional assistance, it is your discretion to talk directly with the driver and help. What if there is a flaw with my purchase? Please note that the equipment is in the original boxes and has not been opened or tested. These boxes have traveled from their overseas factory to our warehouses - and finally to your home. This means that some components may have moved, etc. If you're having problems with your purchase, we'd be happy to fix them once your travel restrictions are lifted. At this point we may not be able to cope with repairs and replacements. We do not allow the equipment to be sent back as well - because we cannot guarantee that they will be received back in good condition and will therefore be considered as Unreceived. Will you be able to install or assemble my purchase? To minimize unnecessary contact, we will not provide our home assembly and installation service. remains with product guarantees? Please refer to the listing on our website for details on the warranties for each product. What if I change my mind about my purchase? If the item has been delivered (or left our facility), the cost of sending it back will be due to the customer. Provided the box is not opened or the product is not used, we will issue a refund (less than 6% for the online transaction fee). If the item has not yet been delivered and has not yet left our facility, only the 6% online transaction fee will be deducted from the refund.
