With the Paramount TPA insurance claim claim form, you will need to attach all the original hospital. This means that the documents must be on the official form of the network hospital. Documents include the severing of all hospital bills, statement resumes, payment receipts, break up package amount added to accounts, etc. If one or more surgical packages have been added to the bill, ask for it to disintegrate on an official form or on plain paper with a hospital seal. Get a receipt for payment on a sick bill to attach with a claim form. The total amount in the receipt must be equal to the total amount of the bill. In the case of before and after hospitalization claims, only the originals of the consultation, pharmacy or laboratory bills are sufficient. You don't need to ask for a break of the account after you've been discharged. Note: Check whether you are eligible for a claim in accordance with the preliminary and post-hospitalization duration specified in the policy. Without a doctor's prescription as evidence, Paramount will not pay for pre- and post-hospitalization costs.
