Pathfinder wild shape feats

(Underdark, p. 25) No, no, no. You can use wild format more often than normal. A prerequisite for the Ability to use wild format, you can use your wild form ability twice as much per day as you might otherwise be. If you can use wild format as an element, you'll also get one extra use a day in your elemental wild form. Special You can do this feat several times, getting two other wild shapes for your usual type and one extra elemental wild shape (if you have this feature) each time. I look for all kinds of feats that help in wild form (clarifying, not wild feats, where you use a wild shape to get some ability). In particular, I'd like some feats that allow you to go wild for bigger things, then you just get to the progress of the class. I'm all ears to all the other useful wild shapes and ideas! 2011-06-08, 12:29 AM (ISO 8601) Frozen Wildshape Frostburn Aberrant Wildshape Lords of Madness Dragon Wildshape Draconomicon Exalted Wildshape Book of Exalted Deeds Originally published by Glyphstone Vibranium: If it were on a periodic table, its chemical symbol would be Bs. 2011-06-08, 09:59 AM (ISO 8601) If you're ready to go to Master of Many Forms, you'll grab plenty of wild form options like humanoid, giant, abnormality, drizzle, fey, monstrous humanoid, plant, element and dragon. Those who are consistent with the druid list should get faster than druids, and you can go gargantuan as a capstone ability. From there, you can (undeniably, if DM is willing to forget the whole Epic feat thing) grab Colossal Wildshape as a feat. Then there's Fast Wildshape and Swift Wildshape. Or you could be Dragonwrought kobold... Then there's Fast Wildshape and Swift Wildshape. Noteworthy is that Swift insists on fast, but doesn't define achievement. MoMF gets Fast Wildshape class capability. (Considering Swift comes from C. Champion, I'm pretty sure this is intentional.) If you're going to go wild as a ranger, I recommend this, but if you play Direct Druid... Don't do this. You lose all casting by going to MoMF there are better ways to improve the wild form with the help of feats that other people have already mentioned. 2011-07-24, 12:09 AM (ISO 8601) going MMF or not you need to grab Natural Spell feat (PH pg 37 I believe) - you can meet cast in wild form! druid 5/mmf10/warshaper 5 - the wild shape lasts 5 hours (could convince the dm to give a mmf stack with druid for a duration, so it lasts 15 hours). wild form from 1 druid, but 10 times mmf. and for the kicker, you can switch between shapes during wild design (without having to go away from it) for the entire duration of the warsand 5. a great combination that I simply love. slap a quick wild form of feat and migration quickly and often as needed. MMF stacks druid for HD (depending on the errata), so you can go to 15 HD creatures that contain the amazing combination of legendary monkey (medium shape, 30str, 17dex, 16con, 6 natural armor, rend, lowlight, fragrance) can easily pass to a person with a disguised self-spell. Can use normal weapons (just get a craze holder in SC for 4000 gp). Great shape! I love it a lot 2011-07-24, 12:30 AM (ISO 8601) Wild shape expert druid, all you need are this: Dragon Wild Shape (Draconomicon) Multiattack (Monster Manual) Improved Natural Attack (Monster Manual) Exalted Wild Shape (Book of Exalted Deeds) Frozen Wild Shape (Frostburn) Assumes Supernatural Ability (Savage Species) Natural Spell (Players' Handbook) 2011-07-24, 10:41 AM (ISO 8601) Originally published by Gavinfoxx as a wild form expert druid, All you need is these: Dragon Wild Shape (Draconomicon) Multiattack (Monster Manual) Improved Natural Attack (Monster Manual) Exalted Wild Shape (Book of Exalted Deeds) Frozen Wild Shape (Frostburn) Assumes Supernatural Ability (Savage Species) Natural Spell (Players' Handbook) I don't think a druid can be eligible for INA because they don't usually have a natural attack to make a difference. 2011-07-24, 03:34 PM (ISO 8601) Originally published cieyrin I don't think a druid can be eligible for INA because they usually don't have a natural attack to make a difference. As long as they are in wild condition, when they take the feat, they can take it. They lose the benefits when they are not formulated, but it would be of no use. 2012-11-30, 02:46 AM (ISO 8601) Can a druid also get into Awesome Blow when he reaches great wild form? Intelligence is that tomato is a fruit. The wisdom is to know not to put the tomato in a fruit salad. Outlandish Claim #5: Originally published by Arbane Belkar Bitterleaf is not to play against the type, he is just a comfortably normal halfback. No plan survives first contact with computers. I'd rather get either Knockback or Large and In Charge. Page 2 12:28 (ISO 8601) Hello! I'm looking for all sorts of exploits to help.
