We don't take feral cats. If the cat has a medical condition, they will be treated back to health in the best possible way. In addition, the cat or will be spayed/neutered and all vaccines are updated before taking any cat or. At Happy Cat Rescue we take care of the good creature of the cat/pussy. We have very low adoption fees. Included with most adoptions, comes a good bag of test food cat or kitten is eaten and a few other crops and children etc. We are a small family and friend-run organization that has the main focus on the good being of any cat or that is placed in our rescue. It all comes out of our pocket and through donations. There is always a low adoption fee. Donations of cat food and supplies are always needed.. We're a 501-C3 organization. If you are interested in any of the wonderful cats or kittens available for adoption, please contact us. (Contact details on the contact tab above). Shop at I Love My Dog Jewelry! Some of the proceeds are useful for Happy Cat Rescue. ;WNYT's Clear the Shelters is July 23! Our adoption prices will go down for the whole day, and they'll bring some new cats and kittens to the shops! Happy Cat Sanctuary is in desperate need to stop several members of the City's Brookhaven Code Enforcement Department and one special board member harassing Happy Cat Shrines. Our goal is to have an independent investigation be conducted against these employees who conspired against the cats and their carer. We're just trying to help and save the cats. We keep to ourselves and are a means for the community to help these innocent animals help. Recent developments have put the refuge in a very difficult position and this conspiracy against them goes beyond a few neighbours. About Happy Cat Happy Cat is a 501(c)3 nonprofit in Long Island, New York. Our mission is to save the lives of cats and ensure that they are guaranteed by the quality of life every creature deserves, including access to medical care, proper nutrition, proper shelter, and freedom and safety to live without fear of disease, neglect or abuse. Happy Cat rescues cats that had nowhere else to go, including cats that were victims of severe conditions, shot-on, gang targets for use as bait in dog battle rings, blind cats, cats with FIV, and cat abuse and neglect owners. More than 200 cats live in a shelter consists of indoor and outdoor shelters and areas for roam, scratching, lounge and ascent. All cats are neutered, have access to the protection of veterinarians, and are regularly brushed and give a lot of love and attention. Cats and kiws are available for adoption. Chris Arsenault Chris dedicated his life to saving and caring for hundreds of cats. Chris was rescued in 2006 after his 24-year-old son Eric lost his life in a tragic accident when the gas on his bike got stuck. After this devastating loss, Chris accidentally ran into a colony of cats of 30 sick cats. He removed the kires from the colony and returned them to health. At that moment, Chris knew that saving the cats was his call, and he opened the Happy Cat Sanctuary. Please help us by signing and share this petition.
