In the first part, students will be possessive pronouns. In the second part students students practice of using all possessive pronouns. The first step to understanding possessive pronouns is to correctly define #1A. HINT: There are 15.I took my dog to the dog show. His hair was longer than hers. I could see that her dog was smaller than their dog. Someone asked: Is this dog yours? I said, Yes, it's mine. I wonder whose dog is the smallest. My dog won the first place of the tape. His tape was large and its color was blue. My parents and I were proud of our dog. Everyone thinks the dog is special. I'm sure your dog is special, too.B. Fill in the empty with a proper possessive pronoun: mine, ours, his, her, yoursI paid for my scarf, so this. Choose any of these desserts. Choosing a kew. The math book belongs to Ralph. It's. All my brothers love video games. Playing them is a favorite pastime in. We bought this game together, so it's. Answers to #1Part A:I took my dog to the dog show. His hair was longer than hers. I could see that her dog was smaller than their dog. Someone asked: Is this dog yours? I said, Yes, it's mine. I wonder whose dog is the smallest? My dog won the first place of the tape. His tape was large and its color was blue. My parents and I were proud of our dog. Everyone thinks the dog is special. I'm sure your dog is special, too. Part B: This part of the draw sheet of pronoun is aimed at more advanced students. It will include the practice of using these possessive pronouns and abbreviations: yours, yours, you, his, this is who, them, them, there is. Don't let possessive pronouns and gerunds confuse you. Look at these two sentences: 'She can't take it to complain all the time. She can't take his complaints all the time. In the first sentence that she can not take it, it or complains? The second sentence uses an attractive prolation, so you know it's complaining that it can't take. Another confusing draw proun is its own. This is the only possessive protity that has an apostrophe.possessive protation of the practice worksheetView and Download PDF-shrubs on a sheet of #2A. Emphasize the correct draw protity or compression. (Who, whose anyone) is going to fix this horrible mess? During (they are) parties. Sam and Janet danced the tango. Do you know (who, whose who) candy it is? If (your, yours, you) are not careful, the ink will spill. Is it a rude child (yours, yours, you)? Give me (your, yours, you) attention. (Him, It's) clear why she loves him. (Them, Them, There) really is no reason to go outside now. It's a nice statue; I like (his, it's) pose. Some cousins (they are, there are them) come to visit.B. the right word in every sentence. My son did his homework without (me, my) asking for it. It's good manners to ask (those of their own) permission. (Your, you) winning the game was great. I loved (they, their) singing. These jokes are really funny (those are the one).
