Got a notification this morning in my Informed delivery email from the postal service that a package should arrive tomorrow, from a place called Rapid Enterprises. I didn't order anything. I currently don't even have the money to order anything even though I wanted it! Get in here to find out what you need to do. I was just navigating one of my favorite questions and answering websites and found this. So I was also thinking about sharing it here with you. You have not ordered anything, but you continue to receive this fast business inc/stamps notification. So what's the verdict now? Is it a scam or not? As far as I know, this could be for legit shipping and fraud. Here's what one of the members of the sites responded when he created this topic: 1) He said he got a small email package from the United States Postal Service (USPS) with no idea what was order or what it was. 2) He said that he a China tracking number originating from Chengdu and the United States Postal Service email confirmed an alternative tracking number that showed that it also passed the NY with to RAPID ENTERPRISES INC / STAMPS NEW YORK, NY 3) This was just a package containing a generic nylon braid 3 in 1 data cable that he said was cool although he could not understand why he received such a package. 4) Then he remembered that he was gifted a package a few weeks back after submitting a review on Amazon about a mobile phone screen protector he received. Finally, this China Post/Rapid Enterprises shipment UniqueMe is marked to the screen saver while [email protected] handled the gift handling. I just hope this will help other internet users scout online with the keyword fast businesses inc/ stamps in commission to find out what was just sent. I know it's an outsider, but the only thing I ordered recently was PoGo+ from Amazon, which still has placeholder delivery dates. I just got a shipping message from UsPS that said -Sent from: RAPID ENTERPRISES INC / STAMPS BUFFALO GROVE, ILI is pretty sure I haven't ordered anything else. I have no charges on any of my and no pending order email is received. I only know that it comes because I am registered for My USPS and it sends me a text message when a package is delivered to my address. Surely it's not Plus if Amazon still says it's not being shipped yet, right? Anyone here is experiencing something similar tonight? If nothing else, I guess I'll find out on 7/5 when it comes ... EDIT : Priority email only. I got it before the holidays. This explains why I got a tracking number but hadn't bought anything. Boo... Page 2 9 comments
