I know what you can say: This game hasn't been updated since 2013, how good is it? Well, that's why I made my own pros and cons about this game. Let's start with the pros: First, you can play anywhere you want. Secondly, I think at least 25 zombies max per round, which means going high rounds is very easy. Third, all you really need for this game is zevs guns and Ray Gun that pack their fist. Fourth, in Movies, you can play music just like the console version! Last but not least last, you can save your game. So if your phone or iPad needs to be charged, save the game and you're back where you were. Now, on the downsides. Remember, that's my opinion, so you don't have to agree. First, the game is too simple that you can easily get out of sticky situations like in the corner. You can move zombies if you come across them, which supports my first con. Third, if you do grenade animation, and try to change the gun at the same time, you won't equip the weapon. And in four seconds, you'll go down. Last but not least, when you kill a crowd of zombies, the character that u used will use 2, or 3 lines at the same time. So that's it. Do I recommend it? Yes. So, buy it if you want to!
