Jo was inspired when she first tasted real organic chocolate in 1991, after discovering a sample on Craig's desk. They created the first 70% cocoa chocolate bar in the UK and became ecological and sustainability pioneers in 1994 as the first chocolate brand in the UK to display the Fairtrade brand on the package. Today, Green & Black's continues this legacy with a commitment to ethical cocoa and the creation of indulgent chocolate that does not compromise on taste. GREEN & BLACK'S supports sustainable cocoa programs, including Cocoa Life and Fair Trade. Cocoa Life helps cocoa communities around the world gain the knowledge and skills to improve their livelihoods, strengthen their communities and protect the environments in which they live and work. Fair trade helps to trade conditions for farmers. Our process begins when we take beans from the most ripe pods and let them ferment and develop their complex chocolate flavor. After a week, the beans are dried and then roasted ready to be ground into a thick paste, to which we add the finest sugar and other carefully sourced ingredients. The chocolate is refined, stirred for several hours, then hardened to give it a pretty glossy sheen and perfect 'snap'. The luxurious chocolate is then carefully poured into molds, ready to indulge in moments of pure chocolate pleasure. 3 4 We take pride in creating distinctively smooth and rich chocolate experiences. That's why we buy the finest ingredients from around the world for use in our chocolate. From Mediterranean almonds to Yorkshire milk caramel and Indian peppermint oil, all our ingredients are tasted by experts to ensure their quality and authenticity. At GREEN & BLACK'S we have the highest standards for our chocolate. It includes the ingredients we use, as well as the people who make our chocolate. Our chocolatiers skillfully craft delicious new recipes and take pride in ensuring every batch of chocolate they make is of the highest quality. 5 Expertly crafted using the finest ingredients without artificial flavors, colors or preservatives.
