If you're old enough, see if you can remember any of these moments from 1984... While filming a Pepsi commercial in January '84, Michael Jackson's hair went up in flames. Next month, however, Jackson will go further to take home a record eight Grammys. When nude photos appeared in Penthouse magazine, former Miss America Vanessa Williams abandoned her crown. After the controversy, Williams rebounded in the late 1980s with the release of Dreamin, which hit the #8 the Billboard Hot 100 in the United States. Some strange weather events included the May 27 flash flooding that poured 15 rain on some areas in Tulsa, OK in just four hours. Fourteen people lost their lives during this event. A few weeks later, on June 8, an F5 tornado devastated Barneveld, WI-Fi, claiming the lives of nine people, injuring scores more, and causing millions in property damage. Astronaut Catherine D. Sullivan made history on October 11, when she became the first American to perform a space walk. On October 5, Mark Garnall became the first Canadian in space aboard the Challenger. 1984 was a presidential election year that saw Ronald Reagan beat Walter F. Mondale. Reagan had 59% of the popular vote - the most since Richard Nixon boasted of winning 61% in 1972. Meanwhile, in entertainment... At the Cinema, Beverly Hills Cop, Ghostbusters, and Karate Kid were entertaining audiences everywhere. Everywhere. Jones and the Temple of Destiny were the third-biggest film that year. Drawn to America's dance craze, the audience tapped their feet to footloose. And Daryl Hannah sent hearts racing like a beautiful, mysterious mermaid in Splash. Prince let out When pigeons cry and Tina Turner wondered what love should do to him. Paul McCartney and Michael Jackson hit Say Say hit #3 on Billboard's Top Hot 100 songs of 1984, followed by Kenny Loggins's Footloose and Against All Odds (Look at Me Now) from Phil Collins. Rock fans were pumped up for Van Halen's Jump and Ray Parker Jr. released their infectious tune Ghostbusters. You can recognize some of these household names, all of which came into this world in 1984: singer Katy Perry, actress Scarlett Johansson, basketball player LeBron James, actress America Ferrera, singer and actress Mandy Moore, singer and actress Catherine McPhee, and actress/model Olivia Wilde.
