Pin NCHS National Chinese Honor Society (NCHS) was founded in 1993 to recognize those perfect high school students who study Chinese as a world language. The National Chinese Honor Society is a school organization that promotes and recognizes students who demonstrate citizenship, leadership, and community service. The purpose of the National Chinese Honor Society is to encourage its members to become lifelong students in order to gain a better understanding of Chinese language and culture, as well as to play an active role as a contributing global citizen in the twenty-first century. For more information, please contact the NCHS Committee at nchsclass@gmail.comNumber of eligibility Applicants must be a full-time high school student (grades 9 – 12) who has studied Chinese for four semesters in high school with an average of B or higher. A qualified candidate is someone who is willing to work with a school chapter counselor as well as with other students to serve as a positive role model in Chinese studies. For schools that have never induced students into honor society, the National Chinese Honor Society strongly recommends that counselors should first seek school approval to begin setting up a local school chapter of the Chinese Honor Society within the National Chinese Honor Society before the first group of inductees in the school are nominated. Future induction from this school will need to be identified only by the school counselor on the basis of student application forms. The student president of the local school chapter of the Chinese Honor Society must be appointed a sponsor based on his/her consistent and positive efforts in learning the Chinese language. The National Chinese Honor Society Chapter Chapter Advisor is in charge of induction. The original application for chapter must be submitted by an NCHS advisor, who must be an active member of the Chinese Language Association of Secondary and Primary Schools (CLASS) and teach at the same school where students apply to become new inductees of the school chapter of the Chinese Society of Honor. The advisor is also responsible for appointing the student president of their chapter based on his consistent and positive role in promoting the teachings of the Chinese language and culture. Membership and feesEach inductor must pay USD 4.00 per certificate prior to induction. As an option, each member can also order:Pin NCHS ($5.00 USD for each pin) NCHS Graduation cable ($24.00 USD now for each cable, due to the increased cost of delivery and postage) (All shipping and handling fees are included in the prices listed above for U.S. orders; for international orders, please contact the NCHS Committee on NCHS for the quotation of international transport costs.) Application processNational Chinese Honor Society recommends that preparation for induction begin at the end of the first semester or at the beginning of the second semester. The induction ceremony should be performed during the second semester. The counselor is responsible for collecting student forms to select decisions, filling out an online application form for a list of these selected students as new members to be listed (click on order NCHS Certificate & Other ItemsLink on the left side of the page), and paying fees through PayPal or sending a check to: Mr. Baocai Paul Jia c/o National Honor Chinese Society 10100 Finch Ave. Cupertino, CA 95014(Payable to: Chinese Language Association of Secondary Primary Schools)Please note the following:* Please send an NCHS order with full payment at least four weeks prior to the ceremony to ensure that your order arrives on time.* Any refund will result in a $20.00 bank transfer fee and fee. The consultant lights up the mother's candle, and then each induction lights up its candle from the mother candle. The counselor or president of the chapter will then lead the standardized oath:我, the name of the induction, 很荣幸为全美荣誉学会会reas 我愿继续努力学的のの, 了解国化, 为和和の荣而努力· After the solemn taking of the oath, each induction certificate and/or other materials related to the NCHS will be received.
