I start from yellow, then go to yellow-green, then green, then green-blue, then blue.2. Rinse the paint brush periodically and get new water. 3. Work from an angle in. I next went purple, indigo, blue, purple, red-purple and rinsed.4. Next I do red and red-purple, and then red and orange.5. I finally made it back to yellow and yellow orange. Here is a very simple yet amazing looking artwork that you can make with minimal effort and minimal money! You'll need:- construction paper- scissors- glue stick- 24 x 36 frameI finds photos of 9 principle characters from the original Star Wars trilogy online and prints them. Outline the characters with a pencil and transfer graphite to construction paper by rubbing the back of the paper. Cut the character and paste it into black construction paperChoose a 24 x 36 frame – I got a cheap one off the target for about $10 – hang it and enjoy! Participate in Sci-Fi Contests Collect a bunch of magazines, newspapers or whatever you like to use Cut pictures, words or anything else that floats your boat Use some tape to set up photo pseudo likes. You can use podge modge or whatever you like but I prefer a clear ribbon because it makes the image blend well and easily deleted if you are bored with it Our Editor independently researches, tests, and recommends the best products; You can learn more about our review process here. We may receive a commission on purchases made from our preferred link. There's nothing convenient about an empty wall. Featuring pieces that reflect your personality and design ethos can instantly transform your space into a private art gallery. Your choice doesn't have to be all two-dimensional, either. Prints can, of course, catch the eye but mirrors add light and visual interest, shelves provide stylish space for tchotchke, and sculptural pieces work just as well on the walls as the floor. From canvases to hanging baskets and fiber art to marble murals, décor makes a house (or apartment, or condo) a home. So whether you're assembling a gallery wall or looking for small pieces to brighten up boring corners, this option will appear on walls of all shapes and sizes. Here, the best wall decorations we can't stop thinking about. We can think of several better ways to brighten up an empty wall than with a large piece of fiber art. Kate Crowley-Gilbert's handmade rug, and stop showing any room with bold colours, shapes and sizes. Custom order a piece of Matinee and you will receive a 6-foot dip-dyed hanging wall that curves in such a way that it provides highlights and shadows like winding curtains. Crowley-Gilbert says that no two Matinees are made equal so you will receive the only piece in the color of your choice. Los Angeles-based artist Kenesha Sneed has created digital illustrations for the New Yorker, Google, the New York Times, Refinery29, and many more outlets. Now, you can pick up your own prints through his online store, Tactile Matter. A multi-thickener illustrator-ceramic art director, Sneed has released a collection including prints, blankets, mugs, vases and hair choices since 2016. Each of his works was inspired, in part, by his upbringing in Southern California. While he has some prints for sale now, we're interested in Learning In. Custom-made prints are equipped and ready to use with hanging hardware so you can admire them as quickly as possible. Mirrors are multitasker wall decorations. This affordable option is modern and chic, and no, it's not from a high-end boutique. You can print this interesting piece on Amazon without breaking the bank. Complete with fan branches that finished in ultra-trendy, it lends quite glamour without getting too top. These bright mirrors will not only brighten up your home, it will help make the small space look bigger and provide a place for a quick primp. Try hanging these gorgeous pieces in the powder room, entrance, or over the fireplace where reflect the light of your cold night fire. You don't have to be a world traveler to decorate like that. Add a touch of cultural flair to your home with this gorgeous hanging basket handmade in Uganda with traditional raffia ingredients and banana peels. Each basket comes with a weaver profile tag that lovingly spends weeks creating it. And rest assured, this is Fair Trade Certified, so you will support an ethical work environment. Choose from small, medium, and large sizes—each equipped with a circle for easy hanging. Although you can buy just one, they make a bigger statement when grouped together. Who says art should be expensive? Between its crisp canvas textures and sleek framing, this striking geometric cut by the NWT looks like it's straight out of an art gallery (just the way it is, much more affordable). Each piece is printed on a shrink-resistant material with near-fade-resistant latex ink, and you have a choice of two sizes: 16 x 24 inches and 24 x 36 inches. NWT offers 43 designs, from chinese architectural scenes and cherry trees to reproductions of masterpieces such as Gustav Klimt's Lady with a Fan. So, go ahead and tidy up that empty space or start on the wall of the gallery you mean to design. Want to make a big impression without a commitment to paint or to the hassle of putting together some artwork? Minted murals turn your walls into canvases — and you don't even have to hire an artist. Take, for example, this sedentered Ethereal Marble option that adds magic to any bedroom, bathroom, or office. It's available in sizes 10 x 10.25- and 12 x 12.25 feet (more sizes available for different murals) and can give your empty room a dramatic makeover with little time and effort. The mural arrives on the peel-and-stick panels attached to your wall, and the company promises that there is no experience required. The best part for commitment-phobes is that if you change your mind, they are also easily removed. This luxury fashion faces set will make any space into vogue. With their catwalk-worthy expressions and eye-hiding bangs, these gorgeous women look like they belong in a city attic apartment or the corner office of a fashion magazine editor. You can also evoke this urban-chic vibe with this sassy trio. Available in elegant black and gold or winter white and silver, the Fashion Faces set will look stunning in any room that can use a dose of unique sophistication. The analog clock may be retro, but this modern time-teller doubles as a captivating work of art. It's made in Iowa with a hand-painted wooden face and metal hands in trendy brushed gold. Complete with charming in the middle of a geometric line, this clock doesn't take itself too seriously (and you shouldn't either). While Moglea Clock will look beautiful in any room, we see it correctly home in a children's bedroom, master suite or home office. That said, plug it anywhere you often check the time because a playful squiggle will take the sting out of running late. These wooden wall shelves are minimalist, but it is what you put on them that really matters. Grindy Fungi Wall Shelves menu is modeled after half-moon shaped mushrooms growing on trees and yes, they look fantastic in a group. Even better: They attract double duty by putting your favorite items on display and adding sculptural elements to your decorations. Sleek and earthy, these shelves make whatever you place on them pop. Try topping them with your favorite succulents, vases, sculptures, photos, books or collections. Really, the possibilities are endless. Prettier than practical, this mystical mirror offers sunset-like light thanks to its freckled light. Like a traditional mirror, it reflects light that makes even the smallest room seem larger, but with a purple-pink hue, the next reflection is the dreamy things. Thanks to its fairytale-like colours and easy-to-hang sizes, Nova Iridescent Mirror makes a dazzling addition to gallery walls, bedroom walls or make-up angles. Not sure if you'll like it hanging vertically? It also doubles as a tray for cosmetics, jewelry, and trinkets. Whether centered on a sofa or hung over a fireplace, woven hanging walls add an instant dose of texture and pattern to any space. Jungalow's Peach Dash Wall Hanging, hand-woven in India, will draw a captivated look with its furry fringe and abstract stripes. Since the tapestry is done in neutral shades of cream, camel, and black, it will work with almost any wall color. While it will definitely add interest to the striking white walls, if you've taken the plunge and added an on-trend accent wall to, say, emerald or navy, it will add more depth. There's nothing like art with a personal touch. With shades like their flashbacks, this photo booth-style strip is a creative way to showcase your favorite snapshots, especially if you're short on cash or shelf space. Social Print Studio's Giant Photo Strips comes in two sets, so you can take up to eight images to upload, edit, and assemble. They are printed on shiny paper and can be placed on the wall like posters, or you can frame them with a set of magnetic wooden hangers (see social print studio). Wall art doesn't have to be flat. This summer's pieces come with coastal colours and textures, making them a fresh addition to the gallery walls, rooms bedroom, or nursery ... and did we mention it's ideal for a beachfront cottage? The 13 x13-inch mosaic is made of reclaimed wood and then stained with eco-friendly paint in muted white and teal shades reminiscent of a cottage by the sea. As it is available on Amazon Handmade, you will appreciate that this unique work is not mass produced. Bulk: You will support an independent artists business based in Oregon.
