Library of Congressional Control Number: 2008937503ISBN: 978-0-470-37037-9Manufactured in the United States 9 7 8 1 5 4 3 2 1AuthorKeith Massey has learned the language of his whole life, started with a Latin high school and continued to PhD in Hebrew Bible and Arabic at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. After 9/11, he went to work at the Top Secret National Security Agency as an Arab linguist, where he served for more than four years. He is currently teaching Latin and Arabic in New Jersey, a summer with his wife in his native Romania. An advocate traveller, Keith has visited 15 different countries, 5 of which have become Arabic-speaking countries. My dad DedicationTo was Bill and my late mother Nancy, who taught the hard work values. And to Dustin Cowell, my first Arabic instructor. Hopefully this book extends the intercultural understanding of which you have devoted your life to. Author Aka!First and foremost, I would like to thank my wife, Adriana, for her support as I wrote this book. Thanks to my agent, Barb Doyen, for his encouragement throughout this process. And to everyone at Wiley Publishing, especially for project editor Stephen Clark and copy editor Jessica Smith for their extraordinary patience and great talent in the project. Thanks also went to acquisition editor Michael Lewis, senior copy editors Sarah Faulkner and Danielle Vioro, and technical editor Dr. Hatham M. Alkhatib. Last but not least, thanks to my former colleagues David, Jennifer, Michael, and Ron for their friendship in Dubai and beyond as well as to my students. Producer Ana!Here is proud of this book, please send your comment via our Dummies online registration form located at www.dummies.com/register.
