The color exists only through another color, the dimension is defined by another dimension, there is no position except as opposed to another position. -- Mondrian Creates your own version of a Mondrian geometric painting, using this numbered diagram as the Think of Piet Mondrian and think of Piet Mondrian and think of large paintings with asymmetrical rectangles of primary colors in a grid of strong black lines. It is hard to imagine that he began as a landscaper and was influenced by Fauvism, Symbolism and Cubism on his way to his characteristic ortractions. To survive, Mondrian had been a porcelain flower painter for virtually his entire life. Maybe this explains his hatred of nature. ... [Mondrian] suppressed the curves and all the green ones because it reminded him of the trees, which he hated. ... In 1924 the artist separated from Theo van Doesburg, who ... he argued that the inclined line at a 45-degree inclination better corresponded to the dynamism of modern man. (Art of our century, ed Jean-Louis Ferrier, page 429.) You will need: An impression of the template. Paint in the following colors: black, white, red, blue. A brush. You may find it easier to use a large, small brush for colors 1 to 3. What you're going to do: Print the template and style it directly, or use it as a guide to mark lines on a larger sheet of paper or canvas. Decide which colors to use for numbers 1 through 3. Black should be reserved for areas marked 4.• Paint on each area in its designated color, taking care to make sure that its lines are straight and that the colors are not placed in incorrect areas. Tips:• To get perfectly straight lines, use duct tape to make sure the paint doesn't deviate from where you don't want to.• Instead of painting on the black stripes, buy some black duct tape and put this in place. Be sure to buy it in the correct width, as it is difficult to cut a tape length in half evenly. Use for handmade cards, Scrapbooking, word books and other free printable lowercase alphabet templates to create custom handmade cards, in scrapbooking projects, to make word books and for use in a wide variety of other crafts. This alphabet is lowercase and bold letters are ideal for stamping and decorating. High-resolution JPG and PNG files are available for download and resizing. This simple lowercase printable alphabet is available in jpg and png formats (for more information on the difference between jpg and png files, see jpg and png comparison). Download the files to your computer and resize the images to fit your project design. These large bold letters are ideal for decorating with rubber or, for a handmade quick card, cut the decorative paper letter or scrapbooking and attach it to a blank card. These letters are also perfect for making word books.
