Akeem Glaspie | IndyStar The first week of the IHSAA playoffs is in the books. Find out which teams advance to the next round of the tournament. Bishop Chatard 49, Brebeuf Jesuit 7INDIANAPOLIS - Bishop Chatard dismantled Brebeuf in the Sectional 28 opener Friday night, breezing to a 49-7 victory for the Trojans' eighth straight victory in the rivalry. Kyle Cheek passed for three touchdowns in the first half and found Andrew Sowinski twice (from 9 yards and 17 yards) and Sam Richey (from 12 yards) once. Daylen Taylor added a 15-yard scoring run in the second quarter, and the Trojans took a 28-0 lead into the half. Brebeuf quickly moved down the field on his first possession of the second half and found the end zone to break the finish, but a long kickoff return set up a 4-yard scoring run from Taylor to put the game out of reach on the ensuing drive. Derion Gilbert scored from six yards out late in the third and Taylor added another touchdown run in the fourth for the game. For subscribers: Bishop Chatard's offense is flashy. But the defense will 'pound you into the dirt.'Wyatt Schrader and Matthew Coons both had interceptions for the Trojans, who have not allowed more than nine points since a Week 4 loss to Cathedral. The Trojans will face North Montgomery next week in the division semifinals. North Montgomery beat Crawfordsville 49-12 in the opening game. Brebeuf's season ends at 7-3, when the Braves' division title series ends at two. Crispus Attucks 35, Beech Grove 28Highlights: Crispus Attucks 35, Beech Grove 28Highligh Grove 28Crispus Attucks barely held on to a lead to sneak away with a win in Week 1 of high school football sections. BEECH GROVE - Abe Tawfeek struggled to find his words. Standing on the sidelines after Crispus Attucks' game Beech Grove on Friday night, the Tigers' head coach was overcome with emotion. His team had done so, for much of the competition's start, seemed impossible. They had won, 35-28, clinching their first sectional victory in school history. I'm so proud of my kids man, Tawfeek said. They overcame so much adversity and pulled this out for us in the end. The victory didn't come easy. After a big return on the opening kick, it resulted in a touchdown, and after stopping Crispus Attucks on what was nearly a nine-minute drive, it seemed as if the Beech Grove Hornets were in complete control. Then the second quarter happened. It took the Tigers some time to get going - their first point coming a midway through the second quarter on a quarterback draw by sophomore Chris Patterson - but when they broke the seal, the points seemed to come in bundles. Crispus Attucks finished the half-scoring 21-unanswered points capped by an interception return touchdown by senior DB Adrieon Smith. We knew it was going to be a dog fight, so it was big for us to get things going into the half, Tawfeek said. Every point counts, because even going up by three points, we still just pulled this one out with a score in the end. There were several outstanding performers for the Tigers, but Patterson outconded them all when he played with both his legs and arm, finishing the game with two touchdowns passing and just as many using his legs. In my opinion Chris is one of the best duel-threat QBs in town, possibly in the state, Tawfeek said. I only have love for that boy. I've been training him since he was in the 7th. Dividends have been paid. The Tigers will continue their game on Friday, November 1 against the Roncalli Rebels. Guerin Catholic 26, Yorktown 7 Guerin Catholics forsvar viste seg å være for mye for Yorktown i uke 1 av fotballseksjoner. Rett utenfor sin første drive, Guerin Catholic's rushing spillet viste seg å være forskjellen i en 26-7 seier over Yorktown i Sectional 28 på fredag. Bare opp med fem ved pause, Golden Eagles scoret Tigers, 14-0 i loved to finish the game out the way we did, Guerin head coach Tom Dilley said. Our defense played better in the second half and played really hard all the way through. Our offensive line got a handle on a few things later in the second half, but I thought the line played pretty well. Guerin drove it home from gus Baumgartner. Through the first and second quarters, the Golden Eagles struggled to move the ball, were filled in a fourth-and-1 game, fumbling the ball to the Tigers and missing a field-goal attempt from 25. Yorktown would benefit from falters as senior Reid Neal's short pass to senior MiLon McCowan gave Yorktown its first and only lead of the game on the way to halftime. Guerin would hit back long passes from senior Chrisitan Gelov to senior Bernie McGuinness for a 12-7 halftime lead. In the third quarter, a forced fumble by the Golden Eagles resulted in six of a quarterback carry from Gelov. A successful two-point conversion put Guerin up 20-7. A short run by senior Nick Demas late in the fourth put the Golden Eagles up by 19 and eventually sealed a first-round victory. The most important thing is that our seniors get to play another week, Dilley said. We're going to embrace it, watch some movies, correct some mistakes and see how we do it on Friday. Guerin faces West Lafayette next week in the second round of Section 28. The Red Devils trampled Hamilton Heights, 52-7. Yorktown ends its season at 6-4. Running back Marcus McFadden ran for 248 yards on 11 carries with four touchdowns and quarterback Blake White threw for 161 yards and two scores as the Saints marched to a 62-14 victory over 12 Sheridan at Bud Wright Stadium. Sophomore also scored on a 42-yard touchdown reception from White.Lutheran led 21-0 before Sheridan (6-4) responded with a 6-play drive that quarterback Silas DeVaney finished with a 1-yard run late in the first half to push the Saints lead to 49-14, which initiated the IHSA's mercy rule and running the clock in the second half. Lutheran ran for 330 yards on 18 carries while adding two touchdowns in the fourth quarter on a 63-yard run from Bryce Lucas and a pass from Michael Joseph to Rodney Miles. INDIANAPOLIS -- After suffering a close loss to Decatur Central earlier in the year, plainfield Quakers seemed to take revenge on their conference foe to start sections. Unfortunately for them, the Hawks took a 21-0 lead in the first guarter, the Quakers faced an uphill battle they could never guite rise up, resulting in a 49-13 loss to end their season. The first half contained only scoring play as the Hawks jumped to a 35-0 lead. Running back Kenny Tracy tore up the stats sheet through the first two quarters, muscling the ball into the end zone for two points. Tracy got it done at the defensive end as well, snagging an interception that put the Hawks offense up in enemy territory and later a touchdown. Similarly, quarterback Peyton Horsley showed his rushing ability, also noting himself for two rushing touchdowns in the first half. As for the Quakers, the night began on a positive tone as they bounced off a big race to sit within a few yards of the finish line. A score would have tied things up at seven. But they suffered a major blow to the gut by fomle out of wildcat formation, resulting in a 97-yard scoop and score for the Hawks. While they were big, the Quakers showed some struggle at the end of the first half, scoring on back-to-back possessions in just over a minute. A failed kick on the second half damaged all chances of a comeback for the Ouakers. The Hawks took advantage of the recovery when running back Kaleb Hicks ran one in putting the Hawks up 42-13. Soon after, Tracy found her way back to the end zone for the third time, increasing an already comprehensive lead to 49-13. That score would be the last of the night. The Quakers finished the season with a final record of 5-5. The Hawks advance to 8-2 and look to face Terre Haute North (2-7) in the second round. Cardinal Ritter 21, George Washington 14 Highlights: Cardinal Ritter 21, Washington 14Cardinal Ritter var i stand til å komme opp med bedagelig omsetning i uke 1 av fotballseksjoner. INDIANAPOLIS - Cardinal Ritter Raiders (6-4) slo George Washington Continentals (2-7) i fredagskveldens IHSAA 3A football state tournament sectional matchup. The action was slow for both teams to start this one as both offenses struggled to get started. After a goalless first shot on a Jack Henninger touchdown pass to Aiden Robinson with just over six seconds left in the first half. In the second half, things started to warm up for both teams offensively. Sophomore quarterback Jaquan Bridges led the Continentals down the field in his first half, setting up a touchdown and two-point conversion for the home team. Ritter, however, didn't want to back down, and big plays from Robinson and sophomore running back Gavin Crooke helped fuel head coach Ty Hunt's offense. We muscled up a bit, Hunt said when asked how the offense changed in the second half. We knew what they brought defensively, they had shown us a couple of things in the first half. It's part of the football game and gets your puzzle pieces in the right places. Ritter faces Greencastle next Friday night. Danville 28, Tri-West 12Danville and Tri-West didn't get their offense going until late, but Danville scored enough to make it out of Week 1 in football sectionals. LIZTON - In the first round of the Grade 3A Football Sectional No. 29, the Danville Warriors used a second-half surge to overcome the home team Tri-West, 28-12. Tri-West (7-3) entered the evening on a five-game winning streak, one that began September 20 with a onepoint victory against the same Warriors team they faced tonight. After only being defeated by one, Danville (5-5) went Friday hungry for revenge. The first half consisted of punt after punt, and neither team managed to create much on offense. The only drive that saw the road to the red zone was Danville's last in the first half, choosing to go for the end zone as time expired instead of a field goal. It was unsuccessful, and both teams came into the break goalless. In fact, the Bruins were the first team to hit, scoring on a 68-yard touchdown pass from Luke Robertson to Bryce Hendershot. After that, it was all the Warriors. Danville guickly responded with a touchdown of his own. They then got a fumble on a kickoff that led to another six points. After holding tri-west to a three-and-out, the Warriors found themselves pinned on their own 1-yard line. The game broke loose with senior RB Chandler Schubert going all the way to the house to give Danville a two-score lead. The game was then sealed with a pick-six in the middle of the second half that set the Warriors up for good. Tri-West was eventually able to find the end zone again, but it was far too late. It's still the same as we preach, Danville Coach KC Woods said. We are now 1-0 in the playoffs, the season doesn't matter, we try to go 2-0. Covenant Christian 31, Tindley 6Highlights: Covenant Christian 31, Tindley 6Covenant Christian's defense led the way to a Week 1 football sectionals win. How's the old adage going? Anything that can go wrong will go wrong. Well, in Tindley's case, that's exactly what happened. It was quite a defensive display from both Covenant Christian and Tindley, as both teams were goalless after the first quarter. That changed, however, when Alex Coleman returned a blocked punt for the game's first score, putting Covenant Christian up 6-0 after an unsuccessful two-point conversion. Tindley found himself in a 6-0 hole early. But it can be fixed - or so they thought. Things went from bad to worse as QB Zaire Jackson threw an interception that put Covenant Christian in the prime scoring position just before the end of the first half. Covenant Christian would take full advantage of Tindley's blunder and go up 14-0 after running back Gage Coffey found the end zone on a Le'Veon Bell-like carry where he enormous patience. The floodgates opened from there as Tindley continued to beat himself, allowing another short punt-return touchdown. Tindley was down 21-0 at the half and never found a way to dig himself out. Covenant Christian, meanwhile, found great balance on both offense and defense all night long. After a close loss early in the season against the same Tindley team, Covenant Christian knew they had more than just a chance to get into this game. They dominated in all three phases and, as a result, are on their way to the next round of the playoffs after securing their second sectional win since 2016.
