List of legendary looting (orange) by area and boss. Most of these legends can be found by re-farming the boss who drops them. Note: If you have a Mister Torgue campaign for Carnage DLC, you can buy the legendary Torgue weapons from Torgue vending machines using Torgue chips Arid Nexus Badlands [edit] Bone Head 2.0 [edit] Only has a statistical ability to lower the bone shredder, which is purple unique rather than legendary. Bone Shredder can also be found at Borderlands 1 You will also get it from tiny tina attack dragon store butcher. Saturn[edit] Invader (Sniper Rifle) Hive (Rocket Launcher) Arid Nexus Boneyard[edit] DJ Hunter Hellquist[edit] Treants in Tiny Tina's Assault[edit] Another Bee dropping spot! The Bee Shield seems to have a high drop rate. I made too many grinding runs to run, it's usually 50/50 to get one. However, it may be larger. At one point I picked up three bees, starting with a teleporter station vending machine, all the way back to the Lord of Orc (or Duke, depending on who spawns), and back to the vending machines. If you are looking for a bee, I recommend going after treants (big tree's) in the forest - for some Ez Bees farming! Additional information: if you have trouble defeating the Orc Lord, just hang in the lower orc village [hanging skeleton cage with crumpets plates] and kill off 1-2 orks at that time to agro you. After about 3-5 minutes of killing off random orc's, the tree-orc war begins and ork's are pissed off at the trees! Go around the end of a large tree (right under the red pool) and see how the Lord of Orc comes out and begins to attack the trees. I keep a short distance from him (and any stray trees that come my way) and shoot him. It will pretty much ignore you until all the trees are dead, so try not to help him kill them off like when they're gone You're his next target. 8- Bloodshot Stronghold [editing] Dan, Lee, Mick, and Ralph [edit] Storm Front (Grenade Mod)/Flinter at the front of the drop storm. Hopper [edit] BNK3R [edit] (Sub-machine gun) Sham (Shield) Low Drop Rate Unique Heads and Skin All Classes Caustic Caves [edit] Badass Creepers [edit] Longbow Sniper Rifle Rifle Shotgun Specific Heads and Skin Blue [edit] Fab tortoise (death explosion can send this item far from blue - Look for the entire area) Vermivorous Invincible [edit] Prudential Norfleet (rocket launcher) Nasty Surprise (grenade mod) Legendary Commando Class Mod found one in the chest of the Torgue campaign carnage. Wizard Jack dropped one late to defeat tiny tina dragon store. [Ultimate Vault Hunter Mode] Legendary Assassin Class Mod Legendary Siren Class Mod Legendary Mechromancer Mod Chubby / Tubby priešai REQUIRES Doctors to side jobs on the quest from Tannis to Sanctuary to be active and unfinished. Don't pick up any Echo Quest records. Windshear Waste [edit] Drops a Hornet Pistol like this: Neutralizing Hornet View Source Share Mothrakk Son is an optional mini boss found in the observation wing of wildlife exploitation conservation. He serves as a farming stand-in for bloodwing after the bloodwing defeat. Appearances of strategy son Mothrakk usually stay at the right distance from his goal, and eventually swoops down attacks. He dives close to the swoop attack, but can also bombard the earth with jets of flames. Notes Most Son Mothrakk drops are similar to Bloodwing's. If Phaselock is used over a certain area behind the wall, Mothrakk Son will fall off the side of the wall and a large rock, so it is inconspicuous and stuck. His AI is perfectly capable of flying, but is confused by which enemy to attack, because there are stalkers he would attack if he were too close to them. If Phaselock is used by Mothrakk Son when it is above the arena, chances are that it will fall straight to the ground after Phaselock ends. When killed, there is a high probability that the loot flies over the wall, making it impossible to reach. Mothrakk's son has a slightly increased chance of losing Skullmasher. Mothrakk's son can be difficult to farm, because his looting often falls through the floor after landing, making it impossible to get. It can also take too long to run through wildlife conservation to reach it compared to other commonly cultivated bosses. Long runs can be curbed either by having a natural selection attachment or by receiving a sequence of missions from the player to whom it belongs (before the sequence is completed). Mothrakk's son fell in a bone shredder on day 25 at Borderlands 2 $100,000 Loot Hunt. Trivia Mothrakk was the head of the border region. Mothrakk's son is referring to the revival of the Mothra trilogy, in which Mothra trilogy, in which Mothrak was the head of the border region.

opportunity to customize the player's character with a variety of skins and heads. With nearly 100 Skins and more than 20 managers to choose from, this should be the obvious answer that not all of them are immediately getting a player.
