Andrew BellLast update: October 28, 2020 14 minutes read If you are unemployed, chances are you are getting Centrelink as income. Even if you're on top of your spending, a few huge unexpected expenses can put your budget at risk. Just think about how many trifles can go wrong in everyday life, which would cause serious trouble. What would you do if your car suddenly broke down and you had to pay for the repair? Or one of the devices you rely on, such as a refrigerator or washing machine, gives up the spirit? When you find yourself in an emergency and need funds quickly, who are you turning to? Well, they're just what they claim to be: unemployment loans. If you have already applied for a loan with a traditional lender and it was rejected because you're on Centrelink or bad loans, you'd think that quick cash loans for the unemployed are a pipe dream. However, getting the funding you need when you are unemployed is possible! Unemployment loans are types of personal loans for without employment. They can be for amounts between $300 and $5,000. Unsecured unemployment loans, from $300 to $2,000, have repayment periods of 6 to 9 months available. Secured unemployment loans over $2,000 have possible repayment periods of 9 to 24 months. The exact cost of unemployment loans depends on the amount of the loan. It is estimated that Australia in May 2019 695 200 people were unemployed and 1 147 400 people were underemployed Are there other options that I could consider? Well, there are several options. You can ask family or friends for help. However, borrowing money from loved ones can become difficult and lead to strained relationships if there are a few shocks along the way. Depending on the amount, you may not know anyone you trust with enough cash to lose. Another possible route to implement is to use with a traditional lender. However, it can be quite difficult for those who are unemployed and receive Centrelink. A traditional lender can explicitly reject an application when they see these details. So, what else do you have the opportunity to get funding for? Using with Nifty Loans, of course! Although in Nifty we understand that there may always be other options. So when you need this helping hand, apply from Nifta! Can I get unemployment loans from Nifty? Surely you can! We can offer fast cash loans to the unemployed in the form of loans to people on Centrelink.In as opposed to traditional lending practices to which you may be accustomed, we take an alternative approach. In the dynamic world we live in, time is money. Not only is the prospect of meeting, waiting in line and filling out documents not particularly exciting, but you can also use that time to do so many other things. At Nifty, we understand how precious your time is. That's why we designed our system to be much more streamlined and efficient than you would expect from a lender. Life doesn't always go the way you plan it. Murphy's law states that anything that can go wrong will go wrong, and there are days when this is an undeniable truth. At Nifty Loans, we have it. You don't take any joy in the face of a surprise bill that throws your finances a bit out of whack. All you want is to get the funds you need to get back on course. The last thing you want in this situation is that your application is rejected just because the income consists of a Centrelink payment. If you were looking for a lender that understands, look no further. Apply today from Nifty Loans! What do I need to apply for unemployment loans from Nifta? Our app is very simple and we won't make you jump through hoops. However, there are a few things we need from you before you can apply, and documents to help speed up the application even even if you have them at hand. Eligibility We want as many Australians as possible to be able to apply with us when needed. With this in mind, there are four requirements that you need to meet before you can apply. This information forms the basis of our evaluation process. You must be: 18 years of age or more; Australian citizen or permanent resident; Receiving income to your personal bank account for at least the last 90 days; Have an active mobile phone number and email address. Of course, if you apply for unemployment loans, we don't expect your income to be from work. While we require you to receive income within the last 90 days, we are happy to accept most Centrelink payments within or in all of this! This additional level of understanding on our part allows us to offer fast cash loans to the unemployed. If you're following Centrelink loans, why not check if a nifty loan is right for you? Documentation When you press apply now you will be taken to our application form. This should take only a few minutes. But if you want the time spent filling out the app to really fly, you'll provide it on standby: Personal contact information such as your mobile phone number and email address; Reason for the loan; Internet banking data; MyGov data (for customers receiving Centrelink benefits); With this information on your side, you will do so in no time! Why choose Nifty? All right, it's time for us to support the claims of how great we are. Here are some of the qualities, in simple words, that make us so good. Comfortable. Yes, you can also get cash loans for the unemployed from Nifty if you have a bad loan. As you are unemployed, about bad loans is something that traditional lenders tend to look down on. If you are struggling to find a traditional lender that accepts their bad loans, some people may resort to frantically searching online for things like instant cash loans not checking your unemployment loan or 24 7 unemployment loans. However, there is no need to go to these lengths. Just apply to an online lender that understands bad credit, like Nifty Loans! One of the reasons why we do not offer instant cash loans without checking the unemployment credit is that we carry out a credit check on each applicant. This may send some people with bad credit running into the hills, but don't panic yet. We carry out credit checks as part of responsible credit practices. Although it is part of our evaluation process, it is certainly not everything and the end of all. At Nifty, we tend to focus more on the current relationship with money rather than just the credit score. Did you know that some negative credit information can remain in your credit history for up to seven years? This means that the blip of the past may be preventing you from getting a loan from a traditional lender now. But don't be afraid, because Nifty is here! We look at the bank statements you provide to us to get a better idea of how you can afford a loan. Want to get a loan, but are you worried that you're being judged solely by your credit history? Close these tabs to search for instant cash loans without checking the credit of the unemployed and 24 7 unemployment loans and apply with Nifty Loans today! How do unemployment loans work? The quick cash loans for the unemployed offered by Nifty are divided into three categories based on the amount of the loan. Your main responsibility is just to make sure you have enough money in your account when the repayment day goes around. Sounds too good to be true? Let's explain. When sorting a loan agreement, we will arrange a day for repayments weekly, every two weeks or every month. This is typically configured according to the pay cycle. On that date, the allotted repayment will be automatically debited from your account by direct debit. Once the loan is fully repaid, the direct debit will be automatically stopped. We also invite you to repay the loan in advance if you want - you will not be charged any additional fee for it! If you find yourself in an unfortunate situation where you know you won't be able to make a return, communication is key. It is important that you inform us as soon as possible about the change in the situation. Well in advance, we may be able to arrange an alternative payment plan that works for everyone involved. If you do not notify us and there is not enough money in your account for this repayment, the automatic withdrawal may fail and you may be charged additional fees. To avoid this, stay up to date! Looking for a job? Need some training first? One thing we've always found is that our unemployed candidates tend to look for a job or try to find a new career path. With that in mind, we thought we'd have some ideas to help inspire you! Yes, you're looking to get into the workforce but don't know what you want to do or where to start?
