Rated 2.69 out of 5 stars105 useful Positive reviewSome big enough to have been lucky enough to try every eyelash curler made. I love this and will buy enough to know that I have them at hand for years. My eyelashes are no longer or thicker and no curler will help him. But this gently raises every little eyelash you have and brings it up and and Maybe because it's not super wide or often cushioned. It actually pulls and pines less than the super padded type. If you want to try an eyelash curler for the first time or want to try one again, this is the one to buy. Most useful critical reviewPROS Soft The way it opens/closes without so much cheap CONS strength done Not worth the price The metal hurts my hand a bit when they close it BEST USES If you don't have another curler Comments on ULTA Eyelash Curler: Save the money! Buy a cheaper one. I don't think it's worth the price. There are some pros, but there are also some cons. I've used it a couple of times, and I'm not impressed. It has a nice soft piece where it curls its eyelashes. And it's nice that it's not forced stuck open like my last curler, but it hurts a bit when curling because it holds on to the piece of metal. That piece of metal should be improved! Just add a little rubber as a material. Reviewed by 105 customers1Kara from Cleveland, TNThis curler is the worst I've ever used. The curler is so sharp that it cuts through the pad allowing it to cut its eyelashes. At the moment I miss half my eyelashes on one eye and I'm so disappointed. PLEASE DO NOT BUY. NO.1Anna© from New YorkI had this eyelash curler for quite some time and was really good until a couple of months ago when she cut half my eyelashes on my right eye, so now im lashes are missing because they were cut off and my eyelashes were really long too long. Lol I don't recommend, buy a different one. The best5Brooke from San Diego, cal uses this mineral mascara and I noticed that my eyelashes look much longer. This article cut my eyelashes.1TC from NYCut my eyelashes. Don't buy 1Mary from FloridaMi cut my eyelashes! PLEASE DON'T BUY1Liz from TexasI bought his eyelash curler like a month ago. He immediately stopped curling my eyelashes. Then I noticed that a piece of my eyelashes had been cut off. I inspected my eyelash curler and saw that a piece of my eyelashes was inside the rubber part of the eyelash curler, causing the eyelashes to be pushed into the pad and chopped in half. DON'T BUY!! Less from Springfield, VAI went to Ulta and all the other eyelash curlers were sold out. I bought it and didn't think much of it. After a use, half my eyelashes were pulled out! When I came back the next day even the cashier noticed half of my missing eyelashes! Do a favor and buy the Shiseido.Curler for very nice eyelashes4MaryT by Conyngham, PAI uses it as an easy-to-use eyelash curlerThe biggest I've ever had5Sylvanna by Salinas caGreatest I wouldn't buy this product again!Pam from Atlanta, GAThe eyelash curler has curled my eyelashes. No matter how much pressure was applied, my eyelashes didn't curl even in the slightest. My eyelashes are long and thick but very flat, so anyone who wants a dramatic lift, DO NOT take this curler. It is not the from Texas There are a lot of downs. The first thing is, it doesn't curl its eyelashes. Secondly, it cuts your eyelashes. Thirdly, the pillow is very hard. Fourth hurts a little when I use it. Fifth, whatever pressure you've exerted won't work. I like the color and how it looks, but besides that it's not good. Cut my eyelashes in half!1Jackie from IndianapolisThis curler cut my eyelashes in half not once, but twice. After the first time, I decided to try it again, and it cut my eyelashes from the eye. The curler is so sharp that it cuts the rubber pad, causing the eyelashes to be pushed into the pad and chopped in half. DON'T BUY!!! Lashes Curled Well!4Lova New York MakeupThe design of this is flatter than other eyelash curlers. I've had a bit of a learning curve with this, but as long as I center this eye of mine, it curls my eyelashes well and doesn't pinch. It's a bit weird because there's no spring but it works well. My eyes are round in shape. Strangely shaped!Do texas addict needed a new eyelash curler and I bought this in a pinch. When I first used it I immediately noticed that it did not fit the shape of my eye and was pinching the center of the eyelid. If I moved the curler back, they weren't making my eyelashes come out. Unfortunately I will have to return this item, my eyelashes barely look curled after use. Don't Buy IT!Vee from New Orleans Did absolutely nothing for my eyelashes. He didn't even curl them slightly. Definitely not worth buying. Buy a One1Nicole other than Holly Springs, NCBought this eyelash curler because my old man was getting older and spring wasn't that big anymore, so I thought I'd try this. Bend your eyelashes strangely and when it approaches your eyelashes it pinches and hurts. At first I thought it was me, but I kept trying again and getting the same result. I've used a lot of different ones and they've never done it before. I ended up throwing it away because it wasn't worth the money. I needed a curler, not a trimmer...1B. from Las VegasI decided after many years to try a new brand (can you see where it is going?) No stranger to the fact that some curlers can bend their eyelashes strangely, I use it very slightly for a few days ... feeling a false sense of security I decided to give him a nice squeeze. Bad idea. I open the curler and notice that it sticks as it opens. This is when things go south. I take my mascara and start applying as I approach my makeup mirror and look at my eyelashes and almost faint. I take the curler for eyelashes and my eyelashes are stuck between the crack of the open pad now sliced. My eyelashes now look like a jack's mouth or Real discussion time: I looked with disappointment here and discovered A LOT of reviews with the same issue. If it's sharp enough to cut the rubber pad, imagine what it would do to an eyelid? How is it possible that this be sold? My purchase of this product can be confirmed on my account almost at diamond level and I can tell you that I also hesitate to shop in Ulta after seeing their clear disregard for the concerns of their customers. If you hate your eyelashes, use this product.1Alex by Billings I had recently purchased this product because I love having super curled eyelashes. Well, I went to use it, and not only did I have trouble closing it on my eyelashes when he did, he cut my eyelashes. He didn't pull them out literally cut off. I wasn't putting too much pressure on her, I wasn't pulling her down. Just at the pump and I was left lashless. Disappointed!2Bearschick2 from Chicago, ILI normally buys Revlon eyelash curls, but I thought I'd try the Ulta brand. I'm pretty disappointed with this curler. The handle is difficult to hold as there is no grip material, so it slips around my fingers during use. Also, the actual curvature of the tool is really arched, so it's hard to get all my eyelashes at once. I don't think he even does a good curling job. Not a fan. DON'T BUY IT!1 BOUGHT IT LIKE A WEEK AGO AND HAVE BEEN USING IT EVER SINCE AND IT LITERALLY CUT MY EYELASHES IN HALF!!!!!! I USED OTHER EYELASH CURLERS AND THIS HAS NEVER HAPPENED BEFORE. I HAVE A PHOTO SHOOT COMING UP AND I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO! DON'T BUY THIS IF YOU WANT TO RUIN YOUR LIFE!Expensive and I love it!5Mulan from Fairfield highly recommend this product because it's cheap... I like how it comes in the black color. I like how modern and contemporary it looks. I got a great deal where utra had a purchase 2 get 1 free and was able to apply my discount on this! Score! Long BeachWorks great's Lashes5Lash doesn't curl michiganproduct's eyelashes!1BT was practically useless. It didn't curl it's eyelashes and has an awkward design. Come back. Horrible!1Mahriuh from Portland Don't buy! Waste of money! Not only does it not curl my eyelashes, but it also cuts my eyelashes in half!! Pulls eyelashes and hard to open!1-A from EulesOnly had this for 2 days and after trying out, he pulled 5 lashes and barely opens. DON'T BUY!!! Buy!!!
