We keep all of our thoughts as we work collectively to keep our families, our communities and our world healthy and safe for everyone. Our hearts go out to everyone affected by this global pandemic. During this time of uncertainty, we want to reassure you that we are deeply committed to continuing to provide our full array of services as you move forward in your process. In accordance with CDC recommendations to minimize the spread of COVID-19, we have modified ways we deliver services and will continue to adapt as necessary. In order to remain still available while the health and safety priorities of our clients, staff and community members, We have made the following changes: Counselors will continue meeting with clients for pregnancy advice, applications & services; consumption interviews, home interviews, adoption planning meetings, and post-placement visits. These meetings will arrive via phone and video-conferencing platforms such as Google Hangouts, Zoom, and Microsoft Teams. There won't be face-to-people meetings. Your counselor will tell you how they will approach the coordination of the services you need. Customers and community members can continue to contact OA&FS in how we have always been available (OA&FS telephone numbers, online inquiries, email). All OA&FS employees are working to worship. Our physical office is closed for the moment. All group meetings and gatherings will be held via video conference. This includes the Adoption Information Meetings, the Pre-Adoption Seminar; Await Family Pool Party. OA&FS Advisors will continue to face scoring, adapting them to provide guidelines and recommendations. Presentation sensitization to community service providers will be conducted via webinar or video conferencing. Our Facebook group remains a wonderful way to connect with fellow members of the AA&FS community, and our monthly Bulletin will continue. Thank you for your understanding, flexibility and confidence. We look forward to embracing creative opportunities for connection with you all, and will continue to be in touch as we navigate this together. We remain committed to supporting vibrant and healthy adoption relationships open with everyone who is part of our community. Are you pregnant or parental?
