start_guide to start your adventure, you will need to do s/stats to create your character Discord Dungeons. For each level, you will be fully healed and provided with 5 uncoated points, 50 health points (HP). It's a good idea to assign all your unsigned stats. Chat No!assign the amount of the stats. It should look like this- No! assign xpboost 10, for example, or q/glassign xpboost all. Here are the possible statistics to assign stat points with (also can be found by entering No!attribs): XP Boost (it's recommended) Gold Boost, Critical Data, Reap, Rescue, Strength, Lumber Boost, Mine Boost, Defense, Cleaning, Taming Not Sure Which Stat to Build to Do or Not Sure What Stats to Assign Points With? Here's the most recommended build stat to follow at the moment: is the build focused on the XP Boost build focused on XP Boost and Gold Boost made the mistake of assigning your stat points? You can use the YES command for use. Warning! This will reset all your Discord Dungeon progress and it's not reversible! In addition, you can purchase Attribute Scroll to reset all the designated stats points without dropping all your discordor progress dungeons. But beware, this option is very, very expensive! It's worth 10 million gold. You also have to be level 25 to do this. By this point, you are now ready to start your first adventure. Let's go to the next section of the guide! Adventure and lateral activities are the main point of the Dungeon of Discord. 5 adventures are easy and easy. To make an adventure, you can enter either !adv, !adventure or !adventure 2. These teams also double as an attack team. If you need to escape from the fight, you can do so by entering No!adventure 1. If you run out of battle, you won't get any XP and gold. The cool for adventure teams is 14 seconds. This means you can only use it once every 14 seconds. You will need to use Health Potion to keep your HP in green. To get some type of th! buy a health potion 2 (worth 5 gold each). To use Health Potion, you can do this by logging in to the !heal or Sluse health system. Each medical potion heals 50 hp! If you accidentally forgot to heal and got knocked out by a monster, don't worry! There will be a guardian angel to spice you up and heal you up to 25% of your Max HP. But beware, they will take 0'60% off your current gold as a fee! Then there are the side effects. By performing side effects, you can earn a good number of items with high selling costs, and get XP skills! For more information, go to Side Have you ever found a situation where you don't have enough health potions during a fight? You're lucky since we're going to cover the basics of the market! The Normal Market is the item shop offered by The Discord Dungeons Point Store. To see the current list of common items, you can do so by logging into the list of items. To purchase an item, you can make a zlt/page./ amount. by introducing qlbuy, it's a zlt.gt. To sell an item, you can do so by going into notsell. The global market is the item shop made possible by the discord of Dungeon players. This allows players to trade freely with each other. At the moment, there are no global market fees. To see the current list of elements of the global market, you can do so by entering the list of items .gmglst. You can purchase another player's item by logging into the Gmbuy program. You can register your product on the global market by logging in. To pick up your goods or gold earned on the world market, you need to stop trading. You can do this by going into qlgmstop. Please note that the maximum number of active trades you can have at the moment is 5, and 10 for users with DRPG memberships. For more information on the normal and global market, you can check it out here. Playing Discord Dungeons with friends and other people can rather be one of a kind of experience! Let's start with the basics, as the guild system can be a bit complicated. You can create a guild if your level is 5 or higher. You can create a guild of the desired name by logging in to the system. You can check the guild's information by joining the No!guild team. This will display the guild owner, size, status, item, fund, and required level. To join the guild, which is open, you can join with qljoin zlt.guild name. To join a guild that only invites (closed), you will need to receive a guild invitation. If you need more information about guilds, you can find it here. Gold and items can be provided to other users. !donate @mention (the amount) Sends gold from you to another user! !donate (@mention) (item) (amount) Sends a paragraph (s) from you to another user Need other commands that you want to check and explore for your Discord Dungeons trip?
