Shield of arrav quest guide 2007 español

Difficulty: mediaRecompensa: 1 Quest pts, 600Gp.Alternative Start 1: (Phoenix Gangs member). To join: Go to Varrock Castle and talk to Reldo, which is north of the castle, in a bookstore. Find a book there, read it and talk to Relda again. Go to fur-changer (His name is Bareak, located near Varrock Market. And give him 20Gp. He'll tell you where the band's stash is. Go there and talk to the man at the entrance as soon as you go down to the hideout (the stash is south of Varrock, a secret stash is called VTAM Corporation). Go to the Blue Moon Inn and kill Johnny Beard, who's going to throw out the list of men's intelligence. Take him to the man at the entrance to the hideout, and he'll give you the key to the gun room. A piece of shield is in the chest in one of the rooms of the day. Alternative Start 2: (Black Arm Member). To join: Talk to a homeless man outside a Varrock sword shop and ask him how he could get into hiding. Talk to Katine at the shelter, which is west of where the tramp is. You need 2 Phoenix Crossbows from the Phoenix Gang Armory. To do this, you will need a key to the Phoenix Gang Armory that you should ask your friend to be a member of the Phoenix Gang. Go to phoenix gang armory, little room with lock closed. The room is southeast of Varrock. Go up the stairs and kill the master of weapons and take 2 crosses. Go back to Katina and give her two crosses. A piece of shield is in the closet on the second floor. Once you have 2 pieces of shield: You must have 2 pieces of Arrav Shield, for them you will have to ask your friend who is on the opposite side of you. Take 2 pieces of shield east of Varrock Castle to the Varrock Museum and talk to the man there. It will give you 2 certificates. Give the certificate to a friend who helped you on a mission so that he can also be rewarded and take the certificate to King Varrock at Varrock Castle. Place of arrival: Varrock Library, talk to Reld. Reward: 1 Quest Point. 600 coins. Needed objects: 20 gps. Requirements: Companion to go through the quest. 0.- To complete this task, you have to do together with a partner (who did not do this task either), one in which to admit preferences, because they must work as a team to get two pieces of shield. When you're both ready, you can continue the search: 1.- Ask Reldo for a search and he will tell you you will find a book called Shield of Arrav, it's a blue book with white, find it and read it. 2nd- The book talks about two bands, Black Arm and Phoenix, talking to Reldo to ask for more information. He can't help you, but he'll meet someone who's going to do it, he'll tell you. with Baraek. 3.- Now it's time to choose which of the two you join, keep in mind that your partner has to choose the opposite band. Black Arm Gang 1) Talk to Charlie tramp and ask if there's an end of the aisle Is there anything down this alley?, tells you that it's a secret hideout of the Black Arm Gang, then asks if he thinks you'd be accepted Do you think he would join me?, and tells you to talk to Katrina. 2) Talk to Katrina and select I heard you're a Black Arm Gang, he'll ask you if whoever told you to select the option you want, then I want to become a member of your gang. He'll let you join a band with the condition of getting him 2 Phoenix crosses. 3) Wait for your partner to get the crosses and deliver them to you. Talk to Katrina, and she'll take you to the band. 4) Enter the den, go up the stairs, and south look for a wall cabinet, open it and take half the shield inside. Phoenix Gang 1) Go to the center of Varrock and talk to Baraek, he won't tell you anything unless you pay him 20 gPs. Pay them and I'll tell you about the Phoenix Gang. 2) Go into your hiding place and talk to Straven, select Know Who You Are!, and then I'd like to offer you your services, then tell you that to be part of a band you have to kill Jonny's beard and bring the message back. 3) Jonny is located in the Blue Moon Inn (Bar opposite Sword Shop). Find Jonny and kill him, take Intel Report and take him back to the den. 4) Talk to Straven, and he'll let you join the band, and he'll give you a 'Gun Store Key'. 5) Enter the den and go to the bedroom, find the chest, find what is inside and you will get half the shield. 6) Go to deer guns (map), give gun store key to your partner and get up the stairs, kill guard level 32 and take 2 Phoenix crosses off the floor. 7) Go with your partner and give him a cross-section so he can do his part. 4.- Now everyone has their half of the shield, go with the king and show him your half. The king asks for a certificate that it's a real shield. 5.- Go to the museum and talk to the curator, give them two halves of the certificate, now you need half your partner, so everyone gives one of their halves to the other: 6.- Use one of the halves with the other to join them, and show the king the whole certificate to get your reward. This article is about the search. For the shield, see Broken Shield. You can find the book on the shield in the book (Arrav Shield). Shield Arrav is an expedition where the shield of the famous Arrav avarock was stolen by organized crime syndicates in Varrock. Official description [edit? edit source] Varrockian literature tells of a valuable shield, stolen long ago from from Varrock, a gang of professional thieves. Let's see if you can use this shield and return it to the museum. You will need a friend to help you complete this task. Details [edit | edit source] Settings [edit | edit source] It is very important that at this time to decide which gang you want to join. This option is important for four reasons: You need a member of the opposite gang to work with you to complete this task. Being a member of the Phoenix Gang is recommended if the player has a lower fighting level. Being a member of the Black Arm Gang is recommended if you don't get combat experience. If your partner previously combined two half pieces to create a complete certificate or completed a quest, they can't get half a piece of shield from their gang hideout - meaning certificates can't be obtained from them. If your partner is from the Phoenix Gang, they can help you get the key to the gun trade only. To find a search partner, it is recommended to check the Old School RuneScape forums. There is an official clan chat, OSRS SOA, that can be used to find another partner for this task, in addition to Heroes' Quest. It is recommended to postpone joining the gang until you find a partner! Warning: Although most players in the clan OSRS SoA chat offer their services for free, some players also charge in-game money. Players should always be aware of the possibility of getting scammed when engaging in trust trades with other players. Manual[edit | edit source] [edit | edit source] Required items: None. Note: If you want to join the Black Arm Gang, you can start a quest by simply talking to Charlie Tramp and asking what's down the aisle. Talk to Reldo, located in the Varrock Library, at Varrock Palace. Ask him about the search, and he'll tell you there's probably a book about something in the library. Now you need to check the library with a blue and white book on the top shelf. The shelf is on the east side of the short libraries in the middle of the room. When you found it, read it or go through it. After you have read the book, talk to Reldo and ask him about the whereabouts of the Phoenix Gang, but he will tell you to go to Baraek, a fur trader in Varrock Square because he doesn't know. At this stage you can either join the Phoenix Gang or the Black Arm Gang. If you want to join the Phoenix Gang, talk to Baraek. Otherwise, talk to Charlie Tramp, next to the south gate of Varrock. Ironmen can save 7708 coins while doing Heroes' Quest later by choosing the Phoenix Gang. Black Arm Gang [edit | edit source] Required items: food and weapon (optional but recommended). Entry to the Black Arm Gang shelter. If you want to join the Black Arm Gang, talk to Charlie Tramp located near the southern entrance of varrock. Ask him what's down in the alley, and I'll tell you, it's a stash of Black Arm gangs. Go down to alleys and enter the building. Look for a woman named Katrina and talk to her. Tell her you know about her gang and you won't give your source. Ask her what you should do to prove that you are trustworthy, and she will give you the task of joining her gang. Katrine wants you to steal the phoenix gang. He wants two of their cross-the-crosses. However, you will need a partner in the Phoenix Gang for this part of the quest. Your partner must give the gun store the key they obtained when they joined the Phoenix Gang. Once you have the key, go towards the Phoenix Gang hideaway in the south-eastern corner of Varrock between two pubs. Look for a small room just south of the rune shop with locked doors and a ladder visible inside. When you find him, use the key with the door and climb the ladder. You have to kill the weaponsmaster on this floor. If you try to pick up a cross from the cross-country se be without killing weaponsmaster first, it will prevent you from doing so. Once he's dead, take two Phoenix cross-things. When you both have them, go back to Katrina, and she'll make you a member of the Black Arm Gang. Go upstairs to the shelter and look for a closet that contains half of the Arrav shield. Note: If you are worried about battles, or if you don't get combat experience, you can ask your partner to kill weaponsmaster and trade Phoenix crosses at you. Have your partner from the Phoenix gang drop-trick gun store key while talking to Straven to get a duplicate, and let them give that key to you. Then you can both enter the warehouse and they can kill the weaponmaster while you get the crossshed. Phoenix Gang [edit | edit source] Required items: 20 coins, and weapon (optional but recommended). Baraek is located in the center of Varrock. (To join the Black Arm Gang, go talk to Charlie Tramp.) He buys and sells fur and his stand is marked with a bear fur icon. Talk to him and ask about the Phoenix Gang. First he refuses, then he'll want you to give him 20 coins for info. Give him 20 coins, and he'll tell you it's located in the southeast corner of Varrock. Ask him all available questions. The shelter is located near the southeastern corner of Varrock between two bars. It's a little south of the rune shop. Look for a red exclamation point (on the map) and seek shelter. When you find a red exclamation point, you'll see a ladder. Climb down to enter the Phoenix Gang hideout. Entry to the Phoenix Gang shelter. Talk to Straven in hiding. If you ask for input, he mentions the Varrock Herald newspaper. She should be able to tell him that you know who he is, a member of the Phoenix Gang. Straven's going to want you to kill Jonny's beard (combat level 2). It is located in Blue Moon Inn. This bar is located near the southern entrance to varrock. Go to the bar and find Jonny Brad and kill him. Note: Killing him with a recoil ring won't drop him anything. Jonny's going to put out the message Straven needs. Get the message and bring it back to Straven. Talk to Straven while you have a message in your inventory, and he'll make you a member of the Phoenix Gang, allowing you to enter their hiding place. Straven will also give you a key arms store that you need to save for your partner. Thieves walking around are not aggressive for all players, but there will be retaliation if they attack them. Look around your chest in the south-west corner of the hideout to find half the Arrav shield. You can only grab one shield at a time, and you can no longer get it after completing the quest. Finishing[edit | edit source] Items required: Broken Shield. Take half the shield of curator Haig Halen, located in the Varrock Museum. He'll take your half of the shield and give you two copies of half the certificate. Your partner, who has the other half of the shield, will receive the other half of the certificate. They exchange half the certificate with their partner for the other half. If you have both halves of the certificate, use them on the other side to obtain the completed certificates. If you complete a quest as an ironman, you must 'apply' the key/certificate to yourself. Take the certificate to King Roald at the Palace of Varrock to receive a reward. The inquest is complete. Rewards[edit | edit source] Notes [edit | edit source] If the player can not find someone to trade certificates with, he can not complete the quest. If a Phoenix gang member tries to talk to Katrina, she spits on them and doesn't allow them to join the gang. A Black Arm Gang member can enter phoenix gang gun storage with the key of a Phoenix Gang member. Phoenix crosses can be obtained by Phoenix gang members by going to the gun store and telekinetic grabbing them. However, cross-negotiables must be traded with a member of the Black Arm gang in order to gain the trust of Katrina. If you work with other players who want to get half the certificate from you, it would be wise to take half the certificates to the bank, store them, grab another shield half from your gang house and present it to the curator. There's no practical limit to how many certificate halves you can have, but it's a lengthy process to go back and forth to a curator and gang stronghold. Note: Once you have combined the two halves of the certificates in your inventory, you can no longer obtain replacement shields. You can only have one half of a shield in your inventory at a time. Also keep in mind that once you have completed this task, you can no longer get the shield half over, although you can still keep the certificate half in your bank account indefinitely after you have search or trade for them with other players. New player trade restrictions apply to quest items, but it is still possible to trade items using them on another player. Trivia [edit | edit source] Arrav Shield was one of 6 quests available during runeScape launch. Once a player completes a quest, they can no longer have any half of the shield from their storage posts. However, players can still get half the shield from other players (through trading, drops, or general trades). In the beginning, the error allowed the player to join both gangs. Katrine seems angry at the player, but the player could still join the Black Arm Gang. Phoenix gang doorman would also attack the player. In the early days, entry to the Phoenix Gang headquarters required a separate key. It was later changed, and the key was removed from the game. The shield is currently on display (display number 24) at the Varrock Museum after talking to the curator on the second floor and telling him how you back the shield for the museum. Before the shield is put on display at the Varrock Museum, it is remembered King Roald offered a 1200gp reward for the shield's reward and we keep this display case empty in the hope that one day he will return. However, King Roald rewards the adventurer with just 600gp to complete the quest - half of the advertised offer from the showcase. During the final dialogue, it is mentioned that this is due to your partner receiving the other half. Needed to complete [edit | edit source] source]
