From Hospital to Prudential (H2P) claims the service is only available for: Gleneagles Hong Kong Hospital at Wong Chuc Hang Union Hospital in Shatin Contact your financial adviser. He/she will help you in the process of completing and signing the necessary documents through our digital platform. Once your request has been successfully submitted to your mobile phone number, an SMS with your H2P number will be sent. After discharge from the hospital, hospital staff will hand over any relevant claims forms, your medical certificate, invoice and receipts, summary of discharges and medical reports (if any). The hospital will apply to Prudential within 7 business days of discharge directly. The original receipts will be presented by the hospital in Prudential via electronic means and will NOT be provided to you. However, you can request a hospital to provide you with a copy of the receipts for your own record. We may request further information during the claims process. This service supports all types of individual hospital reimbursement claims (except outpatient) or hospital cash claims (except for general insurance medical policies and all direct marketing policies). You rely on Prudential's creditworthiness and your investments are at credit risk to Prudential. Investment choices can have very different functions and risk profiles. Some may even be high risk. Your return on investment is calculated with reference to fluctuations in the performance of underlying assets or reference funds of Investment Choice. The performance of such investment choices may not be identical to that of the respective underlying assets or reference funds due to differences in currency and/or rounding mechanism for valuation. Return on investment under investment insurance plans will be subject to policy fees and may be lower than the return on investment choice/base assets or reference funds. The premiums you pay for investment-related insurance plans will be part of Prudential's assets. You have no rights or ownership of any of these assets. Your appeal in accordance with investment plans against Prudential only. Stopping or early early Investment-related insurance plans can result in a significant loss of your investment and premiums paid. You should not buy investment-related insurance plans if you don't understand and this has been explained to you as it suits you. The final decision is up to her. For more information on reference funds, please refer to the relevant documents offering reference funds. You can contact the Prudential Customer Service hotline (2281 1333) for the latest background funds documents. Investments involve risks. Past performance does not indicate future performance. You should not invest solely based on the information on this site. You STRONGLY RECOMMENDED read documents on the provision of investment-related insurance plans (including product key statements, product brochures and summary information for investment choices) and relevant documents offering reference funds carefully for detailed information, including risk factors, fees and product features.
