Published in 2019 Program Description skillFlix ™ (SkillFlix) is a skill-building online video library designed for parents of young people with mild cognitive impairment. SkillFlix's videos can teach parents conversation skills and sexual health information and have more productive conversations with their children by modeling effective conversations. SkillFlix for parents has under received plasty evaluations to improve the design and implementation of the program and add it to the teen pregnancy prevention evidence base. A formation evaluation is followed by an evaluation of the effectiveness of the program. Program Snapshot Population: Parents of Cognitively Impaired Students (ages 10-26) Location: Kent, Ionia and Moncalm Counties, MI Partners: Nine school districts in Kent, Ionia and Moncalm counties have goals to teach parents conversational skills that teach parents knowledge about adolescent sexual health. A library that teaches parents how to have conversations about sexual health with teens with cognitive impairments that increase the frequency of communication between parents and teens with cognitive impairments that increase their ability to have effective conversations about sexual health. SkillFlix's video features actors with cognitive impairments and their parents having conversations about their sexual health. Each 60-second video uses ™ model the small actions parents can take to improve the quality of their conversations. Videos are organized by skill set. Each skill includes 3-5 videos that teach microskill separately. For example, the use tone of conversation skill includes videos about microskills that use relaxed open body language and stay positive or neutral when surprised. The video also contains information on topics related to sexual health, such as abstinence, pregnancy, and sexually transmitted diseases (STIs). By watching and practicing videos, parents learn the skills to have effective conversations with their children and respond to unpredictable situations. SkillFlix for Parents is an extension of skillFlix training technology originally developed for health educators by injection with National Institutes of Health funding. Parallel school-based lessons for adolescents Participants in Skillflix for parents have children who have a curriculum that makes a difference in school. Funded by the HHS Department of Children, Families and Youth Services and conducted by the Kent Intermediate School District, this evidence-based program is adapted to students with mild cognitive impairments and provides knowledge and skills to reduce risk.And pregnancy. SkillFlix videos for parents match the curriculum that makes a difference, and parents can have conversations with their children about what they're learning at school. Teachers at these schools are trained by facilitators and provide an additional layer of support for students and their families. Reator .com 62% of buyers pass home spas if it means entering the right school district. 50% will have easy access to shopping and 44% will give up space in the form of bonus rooms. If the home you plan to sell is in a highly coveted school district, do everything in your power to highlight that fact in all of your real estate marketing materials. Many potential buyers are parents of children who are currently in the school system, so make sure you get the word among neighbors and local friends. If you're buying a home, use a search tool that can filter to school distinctions because school district boundaries don't always match town, village, or city lines. After all, it's ine thought that your child will be assigned to attend the same school as the kids down the block. Individuals can use the ForRent, Zillow or Hotpads websites to.com look for apartments in specific school districts and to see district boundaries. Users can look at the attendance zone of a particular school to see if their child is eligible to attend a particular school while living at an apartment address. Users can go to the Hotpads website and choose any filter of the number of bedrooms and price range of the apartment. Then enter your location in the search box and perform a search to see a map of apartments in the area. Clicking on the results will show you a list of elementary, middle and high schools that residents can attend, and the Hotpads.Zillow website allows users to filter for the type of apartment they want and enter the name of the school district in the search box. It displays a map with boundaries where apartments within boundaries are part of the school district. Click on the results of the properties on the map to see a detailed list with school information. Users .com ForRent can enter a specific school district or school name in the search box to see nearby apartments. After setting up filters for prices, bedrooms, amenities, bathrooms, pet policies or features, users can enter search terms to see qualified apartments. Jonathan Kahn/Stone/Getty Images The best way to find your school district is to consult an online search engine that uses geographic identifiers to determine your school district. The U.S. Department of Education's National Center for Education Statistics offers such tools.Schools offer something similar. Once you've decided on the right school district, you may need to know which schools are assigned. This can be done by calling the local school district. Many large school districts, including the Los Angeles and New York districts, offer online search tools that use the requester's home address to determine which schools are assigned.
