Put them on medium heat with whatever liquid or oil you use and heat them for about 3 minutes on a gas range or 5 minutes on an electric stovetop. If necessary, increase the heat to medium to carotid meat. Rarely is it necessary to put RockCrok clayware on high because the heat retention is so good. Stir and move food around so that the bottom is always covered with oil, liquid or food. What's in the RockCrok collection? Grill stone.
