World literature mrs kelner

Professional development workshops and courses for educators: ... the gifted Lenore Blank Kelner, brings to all students the opportunity to read and interpret not only children's literature; they actually live! ... students are intensely engaged as they reach a level of understanding of literature that has no parallel in the traditional class. The professional development opportunities for the staff are excellent and the results for children are extraordinary. Ms. Danielle Sultan, staff development teacher Sargent Shriver Elementary School, Silver Spring, Maryland Lenore Blank Kelner is one of the most experienced arts students I know. He has run theater workshops for educators for many years, works directly with students in classrooms, and wrote books that turned out to be invaluable resources for teachers. Teachers tell us that his work makes a difference in their ability to reach students in their classrooms. Barbara Shepherd, Director Partners in Education, Education Department, Kennedy Center I taught for 20 years. This was the best staff development workshop I've been to. Addictive! Practical! Perfect for ELL and all my students. Thank you. Teacher Farmland Elementary, Montgomery Co, MD The three hours flown from. I could use part two - I have so many great ideas. ESL Teacher Green Bay, WI The presentation was excellent and very relevant to help our student achieve learning standards. Teacher Crossfield Elementary, Herndon, VA My teachers were absolutely right -you are the best! What fun it was to have you with us to kick off our first series of workshops for early childhood educators! People have been left and encouraged to expand their repertoire of interactive group games with children so that they are all ready for their transition to kindergarten. Director Fairfax United Methodist Church Preschool Please accept our thanks for the wonderful professional development you have provided to baltimore county kindergarten and kindergarten teachers. The strategies you have provided are applicable to all students and will improve their expressive and receptive language, as well as text comprehension. In addition, you have modeled many engaging and motivating techniques that teachers can use during education. Accompaniment will be a very valuable resource. Thank you again for increasing our professional development opportunities. Only FYI ratings were great and teachers really enjoyed your session. Sharon Hoffman, baltimore county public school early childhood supervisor, took your strategies from our class, literature to the lives of my students. My students can really do that! Acting the scene helped them understand the story and improved... Revisiting ELL students heard other students modeling rich vocabulary. I heard a new vocabulary from my ELL students! Children to come with their own deductions... My ELL students responded with gusto. Third-grade teacher Santa Rosa, California I used course strategies and your books with my students. Drama was a great way to teach my students to infer. The students were able to... create a real connection with the characters ... creating dialogue and putting themselves in the shoes of the characters. it made my students more interested in the book, but they also started asking other questions. Fifth Grade Mosby Woods Elementary, Fairfax VA Professional Development Residencies This is how one of our veteran teachers described Lenore's trial during our 2001-02 research project: Lenore Kelner had a week-long residency at our school. He showed up with our kids the first day, then we reported. He slowly got us involved in taking portions of every day/debriefing/planning. On the last day (day five), we flew alone with input to follow. This model and Lenore's loving patience and concern for each teacher have proven to be extremely effective. I attribute much of the success of Maui teachers who use drama in classrooms to Lenore Blank Kelner. Susana Browne, Director of Education Maui Arts & Cultural Center, Maui, Hawaii Consulting Lenore Blank Kelner, is committed to creating environments and opportunities that support teacher growth and development, and her growth as a professional is legendary. Over the years, Lenore has been a member of regional committees and councils and has contributed to efforts to develop the curriculum and state evaluation. His successes and contributions ... make a difference in the life of ... teachers and children. James L. Tucker, Jr., Maryland State Department of Education Coordinator Lenore Blank Kelner is a leading mover and shaker for the Maryland Artist and Teacher Institute funded by the Maryland State Department of Education. It is a nationally known resource for curriculum transformation. ... She's a real star. Ray H. Zeigler, director of the Maryland Artist Teacher Institute Maryland State Department of Education Without the excellent and in-depth work in artistic integration that Lenore did at our pilot school, Wilson Elementary School, in Oklahoma City, we would not have enjoyed the rapid and lasting improvements that took place at the school. Teachers taught students and students learned from newly learned concepts of artistic integration. I was brought up to believe that if the teacher did not teach, then the student did not learn. I can really say that these students have learned and continue to learn, learn and learn. Executive Director Liberated Arts Center, Inc., Oklahoma City Keynote Addresses As I prepare for this year's conference and [looking for a new keynote presenter] I wanted to let you know again how much we enjoyed your keynote last year. Excellent!!! Excellent!!! Eldredge-Martin, Executive Director Bradford County Regional Arts Council, Towanda, Pa. I cannot adequately express our gratitude for your presentation presentation for our annual Broward County Arts Literacy Conference: A Closer Look. The comments we have received are all extremely positive. This is the first time that the participants have requested the same main rapporteur for next year on the evaluations. Thank you for bringing your unique gifts to broward county teachers and teachers! We're going to be in touch. Patricia eiler, Arts Education Assistant Broward Cultural Division, Fort Lauderdale, FL Demonstration Lessons/Residencies for Students Your workshop at Ft Hunt yesterday really put together a lot of pieces for me. Thank you for helping us put more joy in class. I just finished my master's degree where I studied because some teachers have always had good lessons. I learned that some teachers are community builders. They have respect for their students and their developing gifts as educators. I'm a leader, not just a task manager. Sometimes it takes a long time, but in the end they win the affection and grace of their students. I was amazed to see you do it in an hour. I hope I can do that someday. Peggy (Margaret) Rukenbrod Fort Hunt Elementary School, Alexandria, VA Thank you for the wonderful professional development residency at Desert Harbor Elementary School last week. You have been a pleasure, full of great intuition and I hope to work with you again in the near future to extend and deepen the work you have brought us. Laurie Little, Principal Desert Harbor Elementary, Peoria, A'85382 What's most surprising is that some of the deepest deductions came from students with special needs! Desert Harbor's third grader, Peoria, A'85382 Summer Institutes Lenore Blank Kelner hosted two workshops for the ArtStart program, a three-day training for educational artists, and a four-day workshop for... Teachers. Both workshops were outstanding! It has a clear, concise and structured approach to artistic integration that decomposes the process into easily capitable pieces and therefore demonstrates every concept with clear and experiential examples taken from real classrooms. His understanding of both the world of the teacher and the teacher in the classroom passes through... in its unique, active and engaging delivery style. Christie Kahil, ArtStart Arts and Science Council in Charlotte-Mecklenburg, NC After everything I've learned I'm ready to start the Creative Drama experience this year with my students. My tambourine is ready. I'd been looking for an excuse to get one of those all my life and now I have one. It turns out, all my classes are intensive readers combined with English I. It's going to be a busy year, so I hope the focus and focus activities work well Me. Anyway, thank you again for the course and hope to see you again next summer for the intermediate level. LuAnn Frimmel, Sarasota Reading Teacher, Florida Professional Development for Teacher Artists was so impressed and satisfied with the specific comments and questions of the teachers as a result of the training you led. They showed a deep understanding of the material you presented. I was amazed that even with a variety of levels... advanced teaching artists also left with new information and skills under their belts. You did a great job of reading all the assistants. It was really great working with you! I can't wait to work with you again. March Easter Hawaii Arts Alliance, Oahu, Hawaii Its focus on collaboration and [scaffolding of knowledge and skills] has given our teachers a sense of empowerment and inspired real confidence in their ability to co-teach a quality residency with a class teacher. Christie Kahil, ArtStart Arts and Science Council of Charlotte-Mecklenburg, NC Creative Kids I knew my youngest daughter would love this program and I was right, but I was surprised how much my eldest son loved it. He tried for a week and begged me to sign him up. They both loved your choice of books, the parts they played and their teacher. See you in the fall. Parent Dufief Elementary, Montgomery County MD My son loves Creative Kids so much that he refused to go to his appointment at the dentist that we accidentally planned the day of class. By the way, he loved playing the street vendor in Caps For Sale. We've done it at home at least 100 times. Parent A Child's Place in Hollin Hall, Alexandria, VA Do you discount the family?
